Health Network Management Solution

Introduction

The Healthcare Industry is changing at an astounding rate. The days of fee for service appear to be rapidly becoming a thing of the past and value based reimbursement models are rapidly evolving as the future of revenue generation. The new focus on capitation based revenue models demands creative new technology solutions that are able to track, monitor, and integrate all patient encounters and clinical outcomes in the totality of the healthcare environment. Performing a diagnosis and prescribing a treatment plan are no longer sufficient for providers to receive full remuneration. Providers are now being required to follow-up and proactively intervene throughout the entire treatment program, until the patient issue has been fully remediated.

CMS is mandating these changes to how providers are reimbursed, however it is clear that private carriers are well on the way to initiating similar value based population wellness models. Existing billing, PM, and EMR systems alone are not adequate to provide the necessary metrics and connectivity required to deliver the quality of healthcare envisioned by these new revenue models. A new and more open and connected solution is required.

Product Overview

AllRad Direct, AllRad, understands the changing needs of the healthcare community and we have developed a technology solution that delivers a connected clinical network which meets the emerging needs for patient tracking, monitoring, and scheduling. Our solution enables you to manage the welfare of your patients by connecting you to a network of providers (hospitals, labs, pharmacies, physical therapists, specialists, long term care facilities, etc.) allowing you to view and manage the continuity and coordination of care for your patients. Our solution can be seamlessly integrated with payer systems and provider's PM and EMR systems through easy to configure application programming interfaces API's. We have also included API's for extending functionality as new requirements are identified.

The AllRad solution provides state of the art technology to ensure that patients, providers, and payers have complete access and insight into every aspect of the diagnosis, treatment, and follow-up for each patient. The data base has been designed to facilitate population wellness management solutions of the future by consolidating and storing clinical assessments, diagnostic laboratory and imaging results, prescribed treatment regimens and care plans and their clinical outcomes for each patient.

Provider profitability will be based on their success in delivering high-quality and effective care to their patients. Providers already realize that it is a financial necessity to be able to improve patient outcomes and healthcare experiences. Fortunately, AllRad Health Network Management Solution has been designed with this objective in mind.

In addition to our comprehensive connectivity with a wide range of ancillary healthcare providers and payers our solution provides secure online portals for patients, providers, and payers along with notify the patient and the referring provider, and mark the request as scheduled. The patient is also able to indicate their location and equipment preference.

The system has a scheduler portal and dashboard with work queues and alert mechanisms to ensure that all referral requests are scheduled in a timely manner, patients are notified, and any required pre-authorizations, demographics, or clinical documentation is complete and provided to the referred facility/service.

The system also manages the tracking, monitoring, and billing for each scheduled patient encounter. In addition to the request work queue the system provides follow-up queues for identifying patient no-shows that require re-schedule, completed appointments that require follow-up for results, and billing and billing follow-up queues. These queues are all equipped with customizable alerts to ensure that patients keep their appointments, referring providers receive all the requested clinical documentation requested from the referred facility/service, and that billing is done quickly, efficiently, and accurately. The automated workflow along with the built-in automation ensures that ACO's, Billers, and Private Practices are able to manage the entire referral process in the most cost effective manner, while also collecting the data necessary to meet value based reporting needs for utilization management and review to ensure that they are profitable and that their patients receive the highest quality care at the lowest possible cost.

The built in workflow includes an automated quality assurance and audit process that ensures data integrity, accuracy, and completeness, user efficiency, and system and process compliance. The system provides enhanced transparency to the entire process by providing the capability for schedulers, providers, and payers to add annotations to each patient record. In the event that a patient is called and does not answer the phone; the scheduler is able to quickly note that a call was made and a message left on the answering machine simply by selecting the appropriate annotation message on the patient status screen.

Information Management and Reporting

Information management and reporting are crucial components to any health network management solution. AllRad delivers industry leading capabilities for information management and case reporting required for value based revenue models. Our solution provides complete data for all of the following areas:

- ☐ Referring Provider data,
- ☐ Patient demographic, insurance, and clinical data,
- ☐ Referred Facility/Service Provider data,
- ☐ Billing and Payment Data,
- ☐ Clinical Data from Referred Facility/Service,
- ☐ Patient Employer data, and
- ☐ Agreements between referring and referred facilities.

Health Network Management Solution

These extensive data resources are utilized by our reporting engine to deliver a rich variety of customizable reports and the capability to generate ad-hoc and analytical reports. In addition to the reporting provided by the system payers, providers, and patients can access the real-time information on any patient, request, or billing based on our strict security and access requirements.

Our system produces utilization reports to support value based revenue systems. Providers use our reporting capability to ensure that they have received the maximum revenue for their services and the quality of the care they are providing.

Product Management Functionality

In addition to the robust scheduling, reporting, billing, and quality control functionality the AllRad system provides tools to the technical and administrative teams to ensure that the system is finely tuned and delivers world class performance. The technical tool kit that is delivered with the system enables your technical team to optimize the network and data bases, manage security and access control, and balance the application over multiple servers. The administrative tool kit allows you to quickly modify the wording of alerts and annotation messages. Portals, dashboards, and portions of user screens are able to be modified to meet changing business conditions.

Technology and Architecture

The AllRad Health Network Management Solution uses state of the art technology to deliver industry leading innovation for ACO's and Healthcare Practices. The Microsoft based technology enables easy integration with most PM, RCM, and EHR solutions being used today. Figure 2 below provides an overview of the basic architecture of our solution.

Compliance and Security

The Health Network Management solution is a fully compliant healthcare application that protects patient, provider, and payer information using a sophisticated and proprietary security system. Providers and Payers are able to access only the data that they are authorized to view. Strict system controls prevent individual users from updating or viewing data without the proper advance clearance from the system. The access control and system security manual outlines best practices for keeping the security current and fully compliant. Audits are performed annually on the latest releases of our software by independent third parties to ensure that the product remains fully compliant and addresses any changes in compliance regulations from the federal or state governments or commercial providers.

Encryption of messages containing clinical or patient data is an important feature of our product. The automated encryption of all communication with data requiring encryption ensures that organizations using our solution will always remain compliant with data encryption requirements.

Our team of professional technicians will work with users of our Health Network Management Solution to install intrusion detection safe guards on all application components to ensure that potential attacks on the system are thwarted before they can even access the system or data.

Health Network Management Solution

Application

All of the applications in this system are written in C# in the .NET 4.5 environment. The applications have been designed to support customization and add-ons by providing Application Programming Interfaces (API) in areas where our clients have expressed interest in attaching third party products or proprietary solutions. For example there is an API to validate addresses, if you wish to add another layer of quality assurance by utilizing a commercial solution to ensure that the patient demographic data is correct.

Network

Our solution has been designed to operate seamlessly with many products in use today in the Healthcare industry. PM, EHR, and RCM systems can all be interfaced with our health network management solution through the use of HL7 interfaces. We also communicate with these systems using a secure File Transfer Protocol (FTP) in case the 3rd party systems do not support HL7 interfaces. Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) is also an available option for system owners who wish to enhance the automation of their overall systems and processes.

Database

The AllRad system utilizes the SQL Server database for all data storage. The SQL Server database solution is the industry leader for healthcare applications. There are many tools available to make owning and maintaining these types of databases cost effective. There are many data recovery and disaster recovery options available for this database system.

Health Network Management Solution

Benefits

The major benefit of using this system is the ease of managing, and billing referral requests; however AllRad believes that with the advent of value based revenue models, this system will be a critical success factor for all PCPs and ACOs as they try to provide their utilization reporting and measure the quality of their services. This system will also be the basis for measuring the overall health of patient populations.

The following benefits are delivered to the various groups using the system; providers, patients, and payers.

Providers

Providers using the system will be able to meet CMS requirements for Utilization Management and Utilization Review. They will also receive productivity improvements in their offices.

- ☐ Automate, streamline, and dramatically reduce the cost of managing scheduling and referrals for the following
 - Specialists,
 - Lab and Imaging orders,
 - SNF, Long Term Care, and Hospitals,
 - Prescriptions, and
 - Physical Therapy
- ☐ Support reporting for population health management
- ☐ Enhance the quality and effectiveness of patient care and deliver documented improvements for treatment outcomes through coordination of references and results at the point of care.

Patients

This system also provides benefits to the patients of providers who utilize this system. While the biggest benefit is the convenience this system delivers, the list below provides details on the specific benefits.

- ☐ Simplifies and Automates scheduling of referred services for patients
- ☐ Ensures that patients do not neglect to follow prescribed treatment or diagnosis procedures in a timely manner
- ☐ Reduces risk of complications or failure of treatment or diagnosis
- ☐ Simplifies and expedites the payment process, eliminating the laborious and redundant paperwork submission process.

Payers

Although this system is not designed to meet specific payer needs, it does provide benefits to payers because of the improved operational performance on the part of the provider's billing staff or BPO. The improved accuracy and completeness of clinical documentation is the largest benefit; however the following benefits often accrue to payers also.

- ☐ Reduced re-work due to missing or inaccurate demographic data or clinical documentation
- ☐ Reduced cost of operations

Health Network Management Solution

- ☐ Expedited claims processing
- ☐ Enables value based wellness data audits
- ☐ Improved cost management for the population care through network utilization

Usage Example

The example of system usage described below is a hypothetical scenario based on the experience of current system users.

PCP One Healthcare Network

Patient P came to Dr. D, a primary care physician, working in the PCP One Healthcare Network (PCP-1). PCP-1 is a medical practice which belongs to an ACO that uses the AllRad Health Network Management Solution.

Patient P has several symptoms that lead Dr. D to suspect that P may have a cardio pulmonary condition. Dr. D orders that P go to a hospital and have a stress test and several blood tests. He also asks P to return for further diagnosis when the results of the tests are complete.

Dr. D enters the test requests into his EHR system and at the end of the day they are automatically input into the AllRad solution at the ACO office. The ACO call center staff uses the AllRad solution next morning to automatically notify P that they need to schedule an appointment with the hospital for the blood work and the stress test. When P is contacted, the call center makes the appointments with the hospital that P requests at a time that is convenient to P. The system notifies Dr. D and P of the appointment times and confirms with the hospital that P has accepted the appointments. The system then automatically checks to see if P needs to have these tests pre-authorized based on the data that was provided by Dr. D's EHR system.

P forgets to go to his appointment so the system issues an alert that P did not show up for his appointments at the hospital, which the system knew because it did not receive confirmation from the hospital that P kept the appointment. The alert goes to both P and Dr. D along with the ACO scheduling staff. The staff contacts P and reschedules the appointments for the tests.

This time P makes his appointments and the hospital sends the test results to the system, again as an automated feed from their EHR system. The test results are stored with P's patient data and also automatically forwarded to Dr. D.

The ACO billing staff sends out bills to P's insurance carrier for the tests and when they receive payments they pay the Hospital. Any residual is automatically billed to P.

The data from all of these interactions is used for financial reporting and also to support the requirements for value based payments or penalties.

BRIEF IN OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE SUMMARY ADJUDICATION

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

¹ The debtors in these chapter 11 cases are: Orion Healthcorp, Inc.; Constellation Healthcare Technologies, Inc.; NEMS Acquisition, LLC; Northeast Medical Solutions, LLC; NEMS West Virginia, LLC; Physicians Practice Plus Holdings, LLC; Physicians Practice Plus, LLC; Medical Billing Services, Inc.; Rand Medical Billing, Inc.; RMI Physician Services Corporation; Western Skies Practice Management, Inc.; Integrated Physician Solutions, Inc.; NYNM Acquisition, LLC; Northstar FHA, LLC; Northstar First Health, LLC; Vachette Business Services, Ltd.; Phoenix Health, LLC; MDRX Medical Billing, LLC; VEGA Medical Professionals, LLC; Allegiance Consulting Associates, LLC; Allegiance Billing & Consulting, LLC; and New York Network Management, LLC.

1. The Plaintiff has failed to show an absence of material facts with respect to each substantive argument of his motion for summary judgment or in the alternative summary adjudication. The Affidavit of Defendant Arvind Wallia submitted herewith (Walia Aff.) shows that there are either controverted material facts or a lack of evidence supporting Plaintiff's with respect to each ground of Plaintiff's motion. Indeed, the first case cited by the Plaintiff, Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co, 398 U.S.144, 157, 90 S.Ct, 1598, 26 L. Ed 2d 342 (1970) sets the standard which must be, but has not been, met by Plaintiff with respect to the motion. "The moving party has the burden of demonstrating the absence of any genuine issue of material fact, and all favorable to the party opposing the motion." Here, Defendants have met their burden of showing by specific evidence that genuine issues of material fact exist or that the Plaintiff failed to provide material evidence sufficient to shift the burden of coming forward to Defendant. The affidavit of Walia submitted herewith provides sufficient evidence to meet Defendants' burden of showing that "a reasonable jury could return a verdict for [Defendants]" and to require that the motion be denied. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc, 447 U.S. 242, 248, 105 S .Ct. 2505, (1986).

Procedural Background

2. The procedural background is contained in the affidavit of defendant Walia filed herewith. (Walia Aff. 2-20).

Statement of Facts

3. In or about 2015 and earlier Defendant Walia was the sole officer, director, and shareholder of his co-defendant, Niknim Management Inc. (collectively, "Defendants").

4. In or about 2015 and earlier, Walia was the majority owner and Chief Executive Officer of Porteck Corporation (“Porteck”).
5. In or about March 2015, the Debtor, Physicians Practice Plus, LLC (“Physicians Practice”), acquired the assets of Porteck pursuant to an asset purchase agreement made and entered into as of March 2015 (the “Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement”). A copy of the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement is annexed to the Walia Aff. as Exhibit A.
6. In or about June 2017, Physicians Healthcare Network Management Solutions LLC (“Physicians Healthcare”), a non-debtor, acquired Walia’s membership interests in Objectech Holdings, LLC pursuant to a Membership Interests Purchase Agreement made and entered into as of June 2017 (the “Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement”). A copy of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement is annexed to the Walia Aff. as Exhibit B.

The Transfers

7. On or about June 23, 2017, within one (1) year prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy, Constellation Healthcare made two payments to Niknim; one for $1,500,000 and another for $20,000 (collectively, the “One-Year Transfers”), representing the Closing Payment pursuant to the terms of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. (Walia Aff. 24)
8. On or about April 15, 2016, within two (2) years prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy cases, Constellation Healthcare and/or Orion paid Niknim $2,500,000 (the “Two-Year Transfer”) (collectively, the One-Year Transfers and the Two-Year Transfer are referred to as the “Transfers”). (Walia Aff. 25)

9. Plaintiff has produced no evidence as to the identity of the transferor of the Two-Year Transfer; he merely alleges funds were transferred from the Debtors' counsel's IOLA account, into which Constellation Healthcare and/or Orion made deposits. (Walia Aff. 26)

The Two-Year Transfer

10. Plaintiff challenges the value of Porteck's assets and makes much of the fact that Parmar characterized Porteck as a "joke". Plaintiff has taken the statement out of context and distorts its meaning without any evidentiary support.
11. Parmar's comment was made to the broker Walia obtained to represent Porteck. It was made as part of Parmar's attempt to negotiate with the broker a lesser price for Porteck's assets than Walia was asking. Walia testified in this litigation that Parmar misstated the purchase price to the broker because Parmar thought "he could get a better deal for us." Parmar made the comment on December 1, 2014, three months prior to the March 2015 execution of the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement and almost one and one-half years before the Two-Year Transfer of April 15, 2016. (Walia Aff. 26) Only Parmar, whose testimonial evidence Plaintiff has not obtained, knows exactly what he meant. In any case, as explained in the Walia Affidavit (Walia Aff. 35), the statement is irrelevant.
12. Parmar and Walia ultimately agreed that the value of Porteck's assets was approximately five times its 2014 EBITDA of $2.2 million, or $11 million. (The stated purchase price was $10.8 million.) Based on his experience Walia knew that was a reasonable valuation. (Walia Aff. 37)
13. While Porteck, as seller under the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement, received $10.8 million, the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement provided for a purchase price of $12.8 million based on a request by Parmar that the purchase price be increased by $2 million to fund related deal fees. Parmar stated he wanted to pay the fees out of the proceeds of sale instead of paying them as a separate expense. Palmar stated that he wanted the purchase price to reflect the total cost of the transaction. Walia did not believe there was anything unusual about this. (Walia Aff. 38)

14. Although plaintiff notes that according to the IOLA Account, $3 million of the purchase price was paid to First United Health (“FUH”), a Parmar controlled entity, Plaintiff assumes that the payment was nefarious without furnishing any evidence. Walia had no knowledge the payment may have been inappropriate. Walia was never privy to information concerning the IOLA account and had no knowledge of any disbursements other than to Porteck. Indeed, Walia did not learn of any payment to FUH until this litigation. (Walia Aff. 39)
15. Plaintiff does not directly challenge the value of the Porteck Asset Purchase agreement.
16. Pursuant to Article 3 of the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement, Porteck, as seller, made certain representations and warranties. Pursuant to Article 4, the selling shareholders also made certain representations and warranties. Pursuant to Article 7, Porteck and the selling shareholders jointly and severally agreed to indemnify and hold harmless Physicians Practice and certain of its affiliates against claims arising from breaches of, among other things, such representations and warranties, (Walia Aff. 41)
17. Section 1.6(c) of the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement, which incorporated a funding mechanism to secure the performance by selling shareholders of their indemnification obligations, provides:

For the purpose of partially securing Seller’s obligations pursuant, and without limiting Seller’s obligations thereunder, the amount of two million five hundred thousand Dollars ($2,500,000) in cash (the “Escrow Amount”) shall be delivered by Buyers [sic] at the closing to the Escrow Agent by wire transfer of immediately available funds’ to an account (the “Escrow Account”) to be designated and administered by the Escrow Agent pursuant to an escrow agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit A (“the Escrow Agreement”), which Escrow Agreement shall provide, among other things, that any amounts remaining in the Escrow Account shall be released to Seller twelve (12) months after the Closing, to the extent not subject to any claims made prior to that time. Seller and Buyer agree that for all Tax purposes, any amounts in the Escrow Account released to the Seller pursuant to this Section 2.7 [sic] shall be treated as additional purchase price, unless otherwise required by applicable Law. The Escrow Payment Working Capital Deficiency [sic].

18. The stated purpose of the escrow arrangement was to protect the rights of Physicians Practice, as purchaser under the Agreement, to receive $2.5 million, to the extent such funds were required to indemnify Physicians Practice. No indemnity claims arose entitling the purchaser to any such funds [and Walia that the sellers be paid the entire amount of its purchase price?]. Either Cosnstellation Healthcare or Orion paid Niknim $2,500,000 (the “Two-Year” transfer.) (Walia Aff. 43)
19. Walia did not learn until this litigation that the escrow was not created. Nor did he ever claim that the funds were otherwise set aside to fund the deferred payment. (Walia Aff.44)
20. Walia did not maintain or control the Debtors’ books and records. The fact that the Debtors’ books did not reflect a debt nor payment of such debt is not attributable to Walia. Plaintiff has submitted no evidence that such entries on the books of the Debtors would have been appropriate under the circumstances. (Walia Aff. 45)
21. The email to Walia from Parmar stating “I am willing to give you 3.5MM in return for you to allow me to structure it properly internally which requires I close the file with a [@m?] payment” related to the $2,500,000. owed as payment under the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement, and $1,000,000 that Porteck collected for accounts receivable that were not sold under that Agreement. (Walia 46)
22. Despite his status as an officer of Orion, Walia was not involved in the alleged purchase of MDRX Medical Billing, LLC on February 2016. (Walia 47)

The One Year Transfers

23. Payment of $1,520,000 to Niknim under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement represented the One Year Transfers.

24. Section 1.1 of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement provides that:

“On the Closing Date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, [Walia] will sell, assign, and transfer to [Physicians Healthcare], and [Physicians Healthcare] will purchase and acquire, all of the Interests, free and clear of all Liens, for and in consideration of (A) (1) the sum of those amounts actually paid to one or more of the Selling Parties and Selling Member Representative (i) as Closing Payment, (ii) any Earn-Out payments, and (iii) in respect of the adjustment of the Company’s working capital in accordance with Section 1.5, less (B) any Required Repayments paid in accordance with Section 1.6 (collectively, the “Purchase Price”).”

25. Section 1.2 of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement provides that the Closing Payment of $1,520,000 (the “Closing Payment”) shall be paid at the closing.

26. Objectech owned AllRad Direct, LLC (“AllRad”). AllRad’s property consisted of certain software that was advantageous to the Debtors. It provides state of the art technology to ensure that patients, providers, and payers have complete access and insight into every aspect of the diagnosis, treatment, and follow-up for each patient. The data base was designed to facilitate population wellness management solutions by consolidating and storing clinical assessments, diagnostic laboratory and imaging results, prescribed treatment regimens and care plans and their clinical outcomes for each patient. More detailed descriptions of the software are annexed as Exhibits C and D to the Walia Aff.

27. Constellation Healthcare was a medical billing company that had acquired New York Network Management, LLC (“NYNM”) an IPA company. NYNM needed a major technology overhaul by replacing its existing network management system from Evicore ($1M per year recurring cost) and building custom automation including integration with PARCS (Constellation Healthcare’s billing system). (Walia Aff. 52)

28. AllRad software is a network management system that has the following advantages.

- It had most of the network management features needed for NYNM.
- The technology was the same as the PARCS system.
- The AllRad team was very familiar with PARCS system as they were from the same company.
- The operational efficiency and cost saving for replacing existing software with AllRad software once adapted by NYNM would be over $3M a year.
- The enhancement and cost to the adaption of AllRad software for NYNM was considerably low since the existing Constellation Healthcare technology team was familiar with the software and it had the same technology as PARCS. (Walia Aff. 53)

29. Constellation Healthcare paid Niknim $1,520,000 representing the Closing Payment pursuant to the terms of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. (Walia Aff. 54)

30. The amount of the consideration paid under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement was the result of a bilateral negotiation and represented the exercise of the parties' respective business judgment, in good faith. No evidence has been produced that the Debtors received less than reasonably equivalent value. (Walia Aff. 55)

31. The Debtors' counsel prepared the draft of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. At the time they prepared it they were not familiar with Objectech or its assets and both Parmar and Walia treated the draft as a working template to memorialize the transaction. (Walia Aff. 56)

32. As a company, Objectech did nothing, had no revenue, and had no assets other than very valuable software that Objectech had developed through a substantial capital investment. Consequently, various schedules, projections, and other financial information had no relevance to the transaction. Throughout the negotiations, Walia responded to all requests for information relating to the software, its value, and its utility to the Debtors and believed the Debtors were fully satisfied with such information at the time the transaction closed, Walia was unaware that the Orion Board had not approved the transaction. (Walia Aff. 57)

33. Plaintiff has alleged no evidence to support the conclusion that Parmar was acting with fraudulent intent with respect to this transaction sufficient to sustain Plaintiff's burden for obtaining summary judgment.
34. Plaintiff statements that the Debtors' books and records do not evidence an antecedent debt owed under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement and that after the One-Year Transfer, the Debtors' books and records do not evidence the satisfaction of such debt or an increase in net assets through the acquisition is another red herring. No such entry would have been made by the Debtors because Physicians Healthcare, a non-debtor, was the counterparty to the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. Any such entry would have been recordable in its books and records. In any event, Plaintiff has not submitted any evidence that there actually was an antecedent debt (of Physicians Healthcare) created under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. In fact, there was none because the execution and closing under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement occurred simultaneously.
35. The Debtors received reasonably equivalent value even though the buyer under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement was Physicians Healthcare, a non-debtor entity and Constellation Healthcare, a debtor, paid the purchase price. (Walia Aff. 60)
36. Walia did not know the identity of the members of Physicians Healthcare. Physicians Healthcare purported to be a Delaware limited liability company in the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. It was typical in the ordinary course of the Debtors' businesses to create (and own the equity of) an entity for the special purpose of making an acquisition, and Walia believed that such was the case with respect to the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. (Walia Aff. 61)

37. The assets of Objectech were delivered to Orion, one of the Debtors, at the closing and Walia, presided over the development and integration of the software for the exclusive benefit of the Debtors. The value of this benefit was reasonably equivalent to the amount paid in exchange for it under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. Plaintiff has not submitted any evidence to the contrary. (Walia Aff. 62)
38. Plaintiff has presented no competent evidence that either of the Transfers was made with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud a creditor. Neither the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement nor the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement manifests any false statement, misrepresentation, or backdating.
39. Plaintiff requested copies of certain tax returns filed by Objectech. Such returns were not produced because they do not exist. Objectech did nothing, had no revenue, and had no assets other than valuable software. Having no revenue to report, it filed no tax return. (Walia Aff. 64)

Claims Under NYDCL 273-a

40. Constellation Healthcare Debtor paid fair equivalent value under the Objectech purchase and Plaintiff has not submitted evidence to the contrary.

Judgment Against Walia

41. Plaintiff has produced no evidence to show that Walia was in complete domination of Niknim with respect to the Transfers, nor that Walia used such domination to commit a fraud or wrong against Plaintiff which resulted in Plaintiff's injury.
42. Walia took any payments from Niknim, for value, in good faith, and without knowledge of the voidability of the Transfers. (Walia Aff. 70)

Argument

Legal Standard

43. The Standard for summary judgement, pursuant to Rule 7056 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure is stated in Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. As noted in the summary of argument above that standard may be articulated as requiring movant to show that “there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. The moving party bears the burden of demonstrating the absence of any genuine issue of material fact, and all inferences to be drawn from the underlying facts must be viewed in the light most favorable to the party opposing the motion.” Adickes v S.H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S.144, 157, 90 S. Ct, 1598, 26 L.Ed. 2d (1970). Summary judgment may not be granted if the “evidence is such that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party” Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 343, 348, 106 S. Ct. 2505, 91 L. Ed 2d 302 (1986).

44. Here, Plaintiff has failed to show lack of such dispute as to each branch of its motion.

Disputed Material Facts

45. While Plaintiff states that it is “not disputed that the Debtors’ property was involved in both transfers” (Plaintiff’s Brief para 47), that is incorrect. See Paragraph 9 above noting that Plaintiff has failed specify the source of the IOLA disbursement with particularity, thereby creating a material dispute fact.

The Two Year Transfer

46. 11 U.S.C. 548(a)(1)(A) requires that for a transfer to be avoidable it must have been made with an “actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud” present or future creditors of the debtor. So too does New York Debtor and Creditor Law (“NYDCL”) 276.

47. Plaintiff refers to the “fake acquisition of MDRX” to prove the Debtors’ intent to defraud, but even if that transaction was indeed “fake” it does not indicate that transfers made to Niknim or Walia for the purchase of Porteck were also intended to hinder, delay or defraud the creditors of the debtors. That is simply conjecture, not relevant fact.
48. Likewise, Plaintiff’s attempts to characterize the documentation of the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement is no more than conjecture and is specifically refuted by Walia in his affidavit filed herewith. (See paragraphs 10-14 above.)
49. The $2,500,000 transfer was explained by Walia as a withheld payment to protect the rights of the Porteck purchaser and was withheld as part of a contemporaneous transaction to secure the sellers’ performance of their representations and warranties. When those representations and warranties were fulfilled, the withheld amount was transferred. (See paragraph 18 above.)
50. The cases cited by Plaintiff with respect to intentional fraud or attempts to hinder or delay payment to creditors are simply in apposite as Defendant Walia has fully explained and controverted the facts used by Plaintiff to support his argument. The alleged “badges of fraud” allowing an inference of fraudulent intent (See for example Salomon v Kaiser (In re Kaiser), 722 F.2d 1574, 1582-83 (2d Cir. 1983) are simply either not present, or are in dispute as noted above.

The One Year Transfer

51. Plaintiff’s statement that Walia’s claim that the One Year Transfer was for value “is baseless” is, in itself baseless. As explained above (paragraphs 23-39) and in the affidavit of Walia filed herewith, each and every alleged badge of fraud was explained and refuted by Walia as facts in context rather than conclusions built on inference after inference. A clear reading of the facts stated above, based on the Walia affidavit, create a series of disputed material facts precluding summary judgement with respect to the claims of intentional fraud.

52. Much is made of the fact that Walia was an insider and thus the transfer violates NYDCL 273-A regardless of intent, as a constructive fraud. However, the question of whether Walia was an insider for purposes of the statute is not a simple exercise based on title. Rather an analysis of insider status is “fact specific” and “can turn on a case-by case basis from the totality of the circumstances.” Jacobs v. D’allessandro (in re Dewey & Leboeuf LLP), 2014Bankr.Lexis 4051, 17. “Although the definition of insider is to be flexibly construed, courts generally require evidence of ‘actual management’ or ‘extensive control.’” Id. The purported insider must have ‘a controlling interest in the debtor or...exercise sufficient authority over the debtor so as to unqualifiedly dictate corporate policy and the disposition of corporate assets.” Id. at 18. The cases cited by Plaintiff do not negate the fundamental principles noted in Jacobs. Here there has been no evidence proffered that Walia was engaged in actual management of or had sufficient authority over the Debtor to be able to dictate corporate policy or the disposition of corporate assets. Indeed, the opposite is true. Walia has stated in his affidavit that the purchase of Objectech was the result of a bilateral negotiation between the parties and was in good faith. Throughout the transaction Walia reported to Parmar, did not control the books and records of the Debtors, and had no knowledge of the Orion Board’s action with respect to the transaction. (See above paragraphs 30-37.)

53. Based on the facts contained herein, and the lack of evidence to the contrary, Walia’s sale of Objectech was not lacking in fair value as a matter of law, and a per se holding that the purchase of Objectech was not for fair value or was in bad faith is unwarranted at this stage of the proceedings.

Personal Liability

54. Plaintiff has failed to meet its burden with respect to Walia's personal liability for Transfers to Niknim. "Generally, piercing the corporate veil requires a showing that the individual (1) had complete domination and control over the corporation, and (2) used such domination and control to commit a fraud against the plaintiff which results in injury to plaintiff. Damianos Realty Group, LLC v. Fracchia, 885 N.Y.S 2d 270,274 (2d Dept. 2006), NY App. Div. Lexis 14542. Further, the court noted that "Veil piercing is a fact-laden claim that is not well suited for summary judgment resolution (First Bank of Americas v. Motor Car Funding, 257 AD 2d,287, 294, 690 N.Y.S.2d 17.)" Plaintiff has failed to show Niknim was used by Walia to commit a fraud against the Debtor and Walia cannot be held personally liable for the Transfers. (Niknim denies it committed any fraud based on the facts elucidated above.)

55. As the transferee of Niknim, Walia is not liable as any monies he received from Niknim were for value, in good faith, and without knowledge of the voidability of the transfer to Niknim. He is thus shielded under section 550(b)(1). Sec. Investor Prot. Corp v. Bernard Madoff Inv. Sec, LLC, 564 B.R. 737, 2017 Bankr.Lexis 245, 63 Bank CT. Dec.202. (2017) "550(b)(1) provides a complete defense to a subsequent transferee to the extent he 'takes for value...in good faith, without knowledge of the voidability of the tranfer. Here Walia has stated in his affidavit that he "took for value, in good faith, and without knowledge of the voidability of the Transfers." (Walia Aff. 70)

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

4. On March 16, 2018, each of the above-captioned Debtors except New York Network Management, LLC (“NYNM”) filed a voluntary petition for relief with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”) under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. NYNM filed its voluntary petition on July 5, 2018. The Debtors’ cases were jointly administered for administrative purposes only.

5. On February 26, 2019, the Honorable Alan S. Trust, Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Eastern District of New York, entered an order [Docket No. 701] confirming the Debtors’ Third Amended Joint Plan of Liquidation (the “Plan”).

6. The Plan provides, among other things, for the formation of a Liquidating Trust and the appointment of a Liquidating Trustee to oversee distributions to holders of “Allowed Claims” and “Allowed Interests” and to pursue retained “Causes of Action of the Debtors’ Estates”. The Effective Date occurred on March 1, 2019.

7. The Plan provides that the Liquidating Trustee shall have the authority and responsibility to, among other things, receive, manage, invest, supervise, and protect the “Liquidating Trust Assets”, including causes of action.

8. Plaintiff is the Liquidating Trustee under the Liquidating Trust Agreement by and among Orion HealthCorp, Inc. (“Orion”), Constellation Healthcare Technologies, Inc. (“Constellation Healthcare”) and their co-debtor affiliates.

9. Niknim is a corporation formed under the laws of the State of New York with its principal address at 27 Kettlepond Road, Jericho, New York.

13. On May 28, 2021, Plaintiff filed its First Amended Complaint for Avoidance and Recovery of (1) Fraudulent Transfers; (2) Preferential Transfers; (3) Recovery of Avoided Transfers, and (4) Objection to Claim No. 10067 Pursuant to 11U.S.C. §§502, 544, 547, 548, and 550. [Dkt. No. 22].

14. On June 9, 2021, Defendants filed their Answer to First Amended Complaint and Affirmative Defenses. [Dkt. No. 23].

15. On September 21, 2021, the parties filed the Stipulation Requesting Amendment to Case Management and Discovery Plan [Dkt. No. 26], which was entered by the Court on October 5, 2021. [Dkt. No. 27].

20. At the pre-trial conference, Defendants requested the Court’s permission to file a cross motion for summary judgment and the Court heard and granted such request.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

21. In or about 2015 and earlier, I was the majority owner and Chief Executive Officer of Porteck Corporation (“Porteck”).

22. In or about March 2015, the Debtor, Physicians Practice Plus, LLC (“Physicians Practice”), acquired the assets of Porteck pursuant to an asset purchase agreement made and entered into as of March 2015 (the “Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement”). A copy of the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit “A”.

23. In or about June 2017, Physicians Healthcare Network Management Solutions LLC (“Physicians Healthcare”), a non-debtor, acquired my membership interests in Objectech Holdings, LLC pursuant to a Membership Interests Purchase Agreement made and entered into as of June 2017 (the “Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement”). A copy of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit “B”.

The Transfers

24. On or about June 23, 2017, within one (1) year prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy cases, Constellation Healthcare made two payments to Niknim; one for $1,500,000 and another for $20,000 (collectively, the “One-Year Transfers”), representing the Closing Payment pursuant to the terms of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement.

25. On or about April 15, 2016, within two (2) years prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy cases, Constellation Healthcare and/or Orion paid Niknim $2,500,000 (the “Two-Year Transfer”) (collectively, the One-Year Transfers and the Two-Year Transfer are referred to as the “Transfers”).

26. Plaintiff has produced no evidence as to the identity of the transferor of the Two-Year Transfer; he merely alleges funds were transferred from the Debtors’ counsel’s IOLA account, into which Constellation Healthcare and/or Orion made deposits.

First Claim for Relief

27. Plaintiff alleges the Transfers are avoidable as intentionally fraudulent transfers pursuant to section 548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code and NYDCL section 276.

Second Claim for Relief

28. Plaintiff alleges that the Transfers were avoidable as constructively fraudulent pursuant to section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code and the NYDCL.

Third Claim for Relief

29. Plaintiff alleges that the One-Year Transfers were preferential, avoidable under section 547(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Fourth Claim for Relief

30. Plaintiff alleges that because Defendants are the initial, immediate, or mediate transferees of the Transfers, Plaintiff may recover for the benefit of the estate the property transferred or the value of such property from (a) the initial transferee of each transfer or the entity for whose benefit each transfer was made or (b) any immediate or mediate transferee of such initial transferee pursuant to section 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and NYDCL.

Fifth Claim for Relief

31. Finally, Plaintiff seeks to (i) strike my proof of claim because it was not filed with evidentiary support and is contradicted by the Debtors' books and records, or alternatively, (ii) disallow the claim pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code unless and until I pay to the Plaintiff an amount equal to each preferential or fraudulent transfer that is avoided including pre- and post-judgment interest on the avoided amount.

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

32. Plaintiff seeks summary judgment on his First, Second, and Fourth Claims for Relief.

33. Plaintiff's First and Second Claims for Relief (for fraudulent conveyance) are predicated upon both section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code and the NYDCL. Plaintiff has invoked the NYDCL based upon section 544(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. I have cross-moved to dismiss the claims based upon section 544(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code because Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint fails to allege the existence of any so-called "triggering creditor."

34. Plaintiff has failed to sustain its burden to obtain summary judgment on his First and Second Claims for Relief because he has failed to demonstrate the absence of any genuine issue of material fact. As to the Fourth Claim for Relief, it is not disputed that Niknim was the initial transferee of both Transfers. While Plaintiff's claims against me are premised upon piercing the corporate veil of Niknim, Plaintiff has failed to sustain his burden to obtain summary judgment on such claim.

THE OPPOSITION

The Two-Year Transfer

35. Plaintiff makes much of the fact that Parmar characterized Porteck as a "joke". However, the statement is taken out of context and its meaning is ordained by Plaintiff without any evidentiary support. Regardless, the statement is irrelevant.

36. Parmar's comment was made to the broker I had obtained to represent Porteck. It was a manifestation of Parmar's (appropriate) attempt to negotiate with the broker a lesser price for Porteck's assets than I was asking. I previously testified in this litigation that Parmar misstated the purchase price to the broker because Parmar thought "he could get a better deal for us." Parmar made the comment on December 1, 2014, three months prior to the March 2015 execution of the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement and almost one and one-half years before the Two-Year Transfer of April 15, 2016. Regardless, only Parmar, whose testimonial evidence Plaintiff has not obtained, knows exactly what he meant. Here, Plaintiff's argument is nothing more than a self-serving guess, which is wrong.

37. Parmar and I ultimately agreed that the value of Porteck's assets was approximately five times its 2014 EBITDA of $2.2 million, or $11 million. (The stated purchase price was $10.8 million.) Having bought and sold many companies during my career, I know that a purchase price based upon this multiple of EBITDA is not unusual. The inference Plaintiff draws from Parmar's comment - that the purchase price exceeded the reasonable value of the assets, is a bridge too far.

38. Plaintiff also makes much of the fact that Porteck, as seller under the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement, received $10.8 million, although the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement provides for a purchase price of $12.8 million. At the time, Parmar asked that the purchase price be increased by $2 million to fund related deal fees because he wanted to pay the fees out of the proceeds of sale instead of paying them as a separate expense. He wanted the purchase price to reflect the total cost of the transaction. I did not believe there was anything unusual about this.

39. Plaintiff notes that according to the IOLA Account, $3 million of the purchase price was paid to First United Health ("FUH"), a Parmar controlled entity, and he assumes that it was inappropriate, though he offers no evidence of that fact. And he assumes that I had knowledge at the time that it was inappropriate. I had no such knowledge. Nor was I ever privy to information regarding the IOLA Account. I had no knowledge of any disbursement of closing proceeds other than with respect to the payments made to Porteck. Indeed, I did not learn until this litigation that funds were paid to FUH. Here too, the inference Plaintiff draws - that I was complicit in a fraudulent transaction - is a bridge too far.

40. Plaintiff's arguments directed at the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement are a red herring. The price of Porteck's assets under the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement is irrelevant because, importantly, Plaintiff is not challenging the price or the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement itself as a fraudulent conveyance; he is challenging only the Two-Year Transfer, which was a deferred payment made pursuant to the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement a year after it was executed.

41. Pursuant to Article 3 of the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement, Porteck, as seller, made certain representations and warranties. Pursuant to Article 4, the selling shareholders also made certain representations and warranties. Pursuant to Article 7, Porteck and the selling shareholders jointly and severally agreed to indemnify and hold harmless Physicians Practice and certain of its affiliates against claims arising from breaches of, among other things, such representations and warranties.

42. Section 1.6(e) of the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement, which incorporated a funding mechanism to secure the performance by the selling shareholders of their indemnification obligation, provides:

"For the purpose of partially securing Seller's obligations pursuant, and without limiting Seller's obligations thereunder, the amount of two million five hundred thousand Dollars ($2,500,000) in cash (the "Escrow Amount") shall be delivered by Buyers [sic] at the Closing to the Escrow Agent by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account (the "Escrow Account") to be designated and administered by the Escrow Agent pursuant to an escrow agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit A (the "Escrow Agreement"), which Escrow Agreement shall provide, among other things, that any amounts remaining in the Escrow Account shall be released to Seller twelve (12) months after the Closing, to the extent not subject to any claims made prior to that time. Seller and Buyer agree that for all Tax purposes, any amounts in the Escrow Account released to the Seller pursuant to this Section 2.7 [sic] shall be treated as additional purchase price, unless otherwise required by applicable Law. The Escrow Payment Working Capital Deficiency [sic]."

43. The stated purpose of the escrow arrangement was to protect the rights of Physicians Practice, as purchaser under the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement, to receive $2.5 million, to the extent such funds were required to indemnify Physicians Practice. But as a practical matter, the arrangement was not necessary to protect Physicians Practice because it simply withheld payment of the $2.5 million. The arrangement provided more meaningful benefit to the sellers because it would have secured their rights to obtain such funds in the future to the extent they were not required to fund their indemnity obligation. No indemnity claims arose entitling the purchaser to any such funds, and I therefore asked that the sellers be paid the entire amount. Constellation Healthcare and/or Orion paid Niknim $2,500,000; i.e., the Two-Year Transfer.

44. Plaintiff argues that the failure of the Debtors to create the escrow compels the conclusion that Porteck was not entitled to the deferred payment and that the Two-Year Transfer was a fraudulent conveyance. However, as a feature that would have served to enhance the sellers' rights to receive the deferred payment, Porteck's failure to enforce the provision at closing was an oversight that was averse to its interests alone. I did not learn until this litigation that the escrow was not created, and I never claimed that funds were otherwise set aside to fund the deferred payment. As an officer of Orion and Constellation Healthcare, I was confident that the deferred payment would be made if required. In any event, the absence of the escrow does not militate in favor of the conclusion that the payment was not due or that it was a fraudulent conveyance.

45. Plaintiff's statement that at December 31, 2015, the Debtors' books did not reflect an antecedent debt of $2.5 million owed to the sellers of Porteck and their books evidence no satisfaction of an antecedent debt or increase in net assets as a result of making the Two-Year Transfer is of no moment. I had nothing to do with maintaining the Debtors' books and records. More importantly, Plaintiff has submitted no evidence that either of such entries would have been appropriate under the circumstances. These are just facts from which Plaintiff draws an illogical inference.

46. Plaintiff points to Parmar's email to me saying that "I am willing to give you 3.5MM in return for you to allow me to structure it properly internally which requires I close the file with a 2M payment." The $3.5 million related to a discussion I had been having with Parmar regarding the $2.5 million owed as a deferred payment under the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement, plus $1 million that the purchaser owed Porteck because it had collected that amount of accounts receivable, which were not sold under the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement. Plaintiff's interpretation of the email is a self-serving misinterpretation that does not support a grant of summary judgment.

47. Plaintiff mentions that during my tenure as an officer of Orion and Constellation Healthcare, the latter purportedly acquired MDRX Medical Billing, LLC ("MDRX") and its businesses for $28 million on February 10, 2016, and that MDRX was a sham transaction. Here again, from this single fact, Plaintiff would have this Court draw the inference that I participated with Parmar in this transaction. In fact, despite my status as an officer of Orion and Constellation Healthcare, I had nothing to do with it.

The One Year Transfers

48. Payment of $1,520,000 to Niknim under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement represented the One Year Transfers.

49. Section 1.1 of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement provides that:

"On the Closing Date and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, [Walia] will sell, assign, and transfer to [Physicians Healthcare], and [Physicians Healthcare] will purchase and acquire, all of the Interests, free and clear of all Liens, for and in consideration of (A) (1) the sum of those amounts actually paid to one or more of the Selling Parties and Selling Member Representative (i) as Closing Payment, (ii) any Earn-Out payments, and (iii) in respect of the adjustment of the Company's working capital in accordance with Section 1.5, less (B) any Required Repayments paid in accordance with Section 1.6 (collectively, the "Purchase Price")."

50. Section 1.2 of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement provides that the Closing Payment of $1,520,000 (the "Closing Payment") shall be paid at the closing.

51. Objectech owned AllRad Direct, LLC ("AllRad"). AllRad's property consisted of certain software that was advantageous to the Debtors. It provides state of the art technology to ensure that patients, providers, and payers have complete access and insight into every aspect of the diagnosis, treatment, and follow-up for each patient. The data base was designed to facilitate population wellness management solutions of by consolidating and storing clinical assessments, diagnostic laboratory and imaging results, prescribed treatment regimens and care plans and their clinical outcomes for each patient. More detailed descriptions of the software are annexed hereto as Exhibits "C" and "D".

52. Constellation Healthcare was a medical billing company that had acquired New York Network Management, LLC ("NYNM") an IPA company. NYNM needed a major technology overhaul by replacing its existing network management system from Evicore ($1M per year recurring cost) and building custom automation including integration with PARCS (Constellation Healthcare's billing system).

53. ALLRad software is a network management system that had the following advantages.

- It had most of the network management features needed for NYNM.
- The technology was the same as the PARCS system.
- The AllRad team was very familiar with PARCS system as they were from the same company.
- The operational efficiency and cost saving for replacing existing software with ALLRad software once adapted by NYNM would be over $3M a year.

- The enhancement and cost to the adaption of ALLRad software for NYNM was considerably low since the existing Constellation Healthcare technology team was familiar with the software and it had the same technology as PARCS.

54. As mentioned, Constellation Healthcare paid Niknim $1,520,000 representing the Closing Payment pursuant to the terms of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement.

55. The amount of the consideration paid under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement was the result a bilateral negotiation and represents the exercise of the parties' respective business judgment, in good faith. Plaintiff has produced no evidence that the Debtors received less than reasonably equivalent value; he offers only a negative inference from self-serving speculation.

56. The Debtors' counsel prepared the draft of the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. At the time they prepared it they were not familiar with Objectech or its assets and both Parmar and I treated it as a working template to memorialize the transaction. Plaintiff attempts to paint the transaction as fraudulent by observing that the various schedules referenced in the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement were never completed or attached, no revenue projections, working capital, balance sheets or statement of assets and liabilities referenced therein were attached, the Orion board of directors' resolution approving the sale was never obtained, and the Due Diligence report was never finalized.

57. As a company, Objectech did nothing, had no revenue, and had no assets other than very valuable software that Objectech had developed through a substantial capital investment. Consequently, the various schedules, projections, and other financial information to which Plaintiff refers had no relevance to the transaction at hand and Plaintiff's conclusion that the absence of such documents means the transaction was fraudulent is baseless. Throughout the negotiations, I responded to all requests for information relating to the software, its value, and its utility to the Debtors and I believe the Debtors had become fully satisfied with such information at the time the transaction closed. I also assumed the Orion board of directors had approved the sale and was unaware that it had not.

58. Here as well, Plaintiff's inference - that the transaction was somehow fraudulent, or that I was complicit in perpetrating some fraud - is a bridge too far. Nor do any of Plaintiff's alleged facts support the conclusion that Parmar himself was acting with any kind of fraudulent intent sufficient to sustain Plaintiff's burden for obtaining summary judgment.

59. Plaintiff's statement that the Debtors' books and records do not evidence an antecedent debt owed under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement and that after the One-Year Transfer, the Debtors' books and records do not evidence the satisfaction of such debt or an increase in net assets through the acquisition is another red herring. No such entry would have been made by the Debtors because Physicians Healthcare, a non-debtor, was the counter-party to the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement, so any such entry would have been recordable in its books and records. In any event, Plaintiff has not submitted any evidence that there actually was an antecedent debt (of Physicians Healthcare) created under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. In fact, there was none because the execution and closing under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement occurred simultaneously.

60. Plaintiff has argued that the Debtors did not receive reasonably equivalent value because the buyer under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement was Physicians Healthcare, a non-debtor entity, and Constellation Healthcare, a debtor, paid the purchase price.

61. I do not know the identity of the members of Physicians Healthcare. Physicians Healthcare purports to be a Delaware limited liability company in the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. It was typical in the ordinary course of the Debtors' businesses to create (and own the equity of) an entity for the special purpose of making an acquisition, and I believe that such was the case with respect to the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement.

62. Regardless, the assets of Objectech were delivered to Orion, one of the Debtors, at the closing and I, as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Orion, presided over the development and integration of the software for the exclusive benefit of the Debtors. I believe that the value of this benefit was reasonably equivalent to the amount paid in exchange for it under the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement. The Plaintiff has not submitted any evidence to the contrary.

63. Plaintiff has presented no competent evidence that either of the Transfers was made with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud a creditor. Neither the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement nor the Objectech Membership Purchase Agreement manifests any false statement, misrepresentation, or backdating. Grossing up the purchase price under the Porteck Asset Purchase Agreement to include related transaction fees was neither a false statement nor a misrepresentation. Plaintiff has merely drawn conclusions by inferring them from facts that are insufficient to support the respective inferences. Plaintiff's statement that I was "complicit" in any of Parmar's schemes is a figment of his imagination.

64. Plaintiff argues that I failed to produce evidence in the form of certain tax records, and infers the failure is evidence that I had something to hide. Plaintiff requested copies of certain tax returns filed by Objectech. As Plaintiff is aware, such returns were not produced because they do not exist. As mentioned, Objectech did nothing, had no revenue, and had no assets other than valuable software. Having no revenue to report, it filed no tax return.

Claims Under NYDCL 273-a

65. As already mentioned, Defendants have cross-moved for partial summary judgment dismissing Plaintiff's claims asserted under NYDCL 273-a based upon Plaintiff's failure to plead that there existed so-called "triggering creditors."

66. Assuming, however, the claim under NYDCL 273-a is viable, in order to succeed under this section, I understand that Plaintiff has the burden of proving the transferor's receipt of less than fair equivalent value in the exchange. Plaintiff argues that he meets this burden because in New York, fair equivalent value also requires good faith and a transaction between insiders lacks good faith. Therefore, according to Plaintiff, the Transfers are per se avoidable as a matter of law. However, as discussed in the memorandum of law in opposition to Plaintiff's motion, this is a misstatement of New York law. Insider status alone does not render a transfer fraudulent. Plaintiff must still prove the transferor's receipt of less than fair equivalent value in the exchange.

Judgment Against Walia

67. Plaintiff alleges that "As Defendants are the initial, immediate or mediate transferee of the Transfers, Plaintiff is entitled to receive for the Estate the proceeds or value of the Transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 550 of the Bankruptcy Code and NY Debt & Cred L." See First Amended Complaint at paragraph 43.

68. Niknim is the initial transferee of the Transfers. Plaintiff alleges that there existed a unity of interest in ownership between Defendant, Walia and Defendant, Niknim such that the individuality and separateness between them ceased and that Defendant, Niknim is the alter ego of Defendant, Walia in that, among other things: (a) Defendant Walia controlled, dominated, managed and operated Defendant Niknim as his alter ego; (b) Defendant Walia makes all decisions pertaining to Defendant Niknim; (c) there has been a failure to comply with or observe the formalities of corporate formation and/or operation; (d) Defendant Niknim was inadequately capitalized; and (e) that the individuality of said entity should be disregarded pursuant to the doctrine of piercing the corporate veil.

See First Amended Complaint at paragraph 4.

69. My status as an initial transferee depends upon Plaintiff proving that Niknim is my alter ego. I understand that in New York, in order to state a claim for alter-ego liability, plaintiff is generally required to allege “complete domination of the corporation in respect to the transaction attacked” and “that such domination was used to commit a fraud or wrong against the plaintiff which resulted in plaintiff’s injury.” Plaintiff has offered no evidence to support such allegations and I submit there is none.

70. As to my status as an immediate or mediate transferee of the Transfers, Plaintiff has made no allegation with respect to any transfer by Niknim. Regardless, assuming I was a transferee of Niknim, my liability would be shielded under section 550(b)(1) because I took for value, in good faith, and without knowledge of the voidability of the Transfers.

CONCLUSION

71. In view of the foregoing, Defendants respectfully submit that Plaintiff has failed to sustain his burden for obtaining summary judgment and therefore, the motion must be denied.

Seller that were in such accounts for the period ending February 28, 2015 (Accounts Receivable less Accounts Payable) and in connection therewith the Buyer and Seller shall cause reconciliations of such accounts at 90, 180 and 270 days following the Closing Date.

Section 1.3 Assumption of Liabilities.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, at Closing Buyer shall assume and agree to pay and discharge when due the following liabilities relating to the Assets and existing at or arising on or after the Closing Date (collectively, the “Assumed Liabilities”):

(ii) liabilities, obligations and commitments arising out of the Assigned Contracts following the Closing Date; and

(iii) liabilities, obligations and commitments relating to any rent or other amount payable, together with other liabilities, obligations and commitments under the Seller Leases arising after the Closing Date as well as any liabilities, obligations and commitments under the Seller Leases whether arising before or after the Closing Lease with respect to the condition of the Seller Leased Property.

(b) At Closing, Buyer shall assume the Assumed Liabilities (other than the Assigned Contracts and Seller Leases which will be assumed in accordance with Section 2.2(b)) by executing and delivering to Seller the Assumption Agreement substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit 1.3(b) (the “Assumption Agreement”).

Section 1.4 Excluded Liabilities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Buyer shall not assume any liabilities, obligations or commitments of Seller (including any liabilities, obligations or commitments of Seller relating to or arising out of the operation of the Business, the employment of the Employees or the ownership (or leasing of), operation or use of the Assets prior to the Closing), including any Proceeding with respect to the operation of the Business, the employment of the Employees or the ownership (or leasing of), operation or use of the Assets prior to the Closing, other than the Assumed Liabilities (the “Excluded Liabilities”). The Excluded Liabilities include, but are not limited to, the Specific Excluded Liabilities and the items set forth on Schedule 1.4.

Section 1.5 Consent of Third Parties. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this Agreement shall not constitute an agreement to assign or transfer any interest in any Governmental Approval, Permit or Assigned Contract or any claim or right arising thereunder if such assignment or transfer without the consent or approval of a third party would constitute a breach thereof or affect adversely the rights of Buyer thereunder, and any such transfer or assignment shall be made subject to such consent or approval being obtained. In the event any such consent or approval is not obtained prior to the Closing, Buyer and Seller shall continue to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any such consent or approval after the Closing, and Seller will cooperate with Buyer in lawful and commercially reasonable arrangements to provide that Buyer shall receive the interest of Seller in the benefits under any such Governmental Approval, Permit or Assigned Contract, including to the extent commercially reasonable, performance by Seller, as agent, provided that Buyer shall undertake to pay or satisfy the corresponding liabilities for the enjoyment of such benefit to the extent Buyer would have been responsible therefor if such consent or approval had been obtained. Seller shall pay and discharge, and shall indemnify and hold Buyer harmless from and against, before and after the Closing (a) any and all out-of-pocket costs of seeking any such Governmental Approval and Permit and (b) any fees charged by any third party with respect to seeking any such Assigned Contract consent. Nothing in this Section 1.5 shall be deemed a waiver by Buyer of its right to receive prior to the Closing an effective assignment of all of the Assets nor shall this Section 1.5 be deemed to constitute an agreement to exclude from the Assets any assets described under Section 1.1. The parties hereby agree that the Seller shall have 60 days from the date hereof to obtain the consent of the landlord with respect to the Seller Leased Property.

Section 1.6 Purchase Price and Payment for Assets.

(a) The purchase price for the Assets consists of the following (i) $12,800,000 (the “Closing Consideration”), of which sum (1) $12,300,000 will be paid by Buyer to Seller (the “Closing Payment”), (2) $500,000 will be deemed paid by Buyer’s causing the cancellation of the Seller’s obligation to Constellation Health Technology Inc. pursuant to that certain Promissory Note (the “Bridge Note”) dated February 9, 2015, and (ii) the Post-Closing Payment payable pursuant to Section 1.7 (collectively, the “Purchase Price”).

(b) Payment of Purchase Price. At the Closing, Buyer shall deliver to Seller the Closing Payment in immediately available funds by wire transfer to an account or accounts designated by Seller to Buyer in writing no later than three Business Days prior to the Closing.

(c) Discharge of Debt and Liabilities.

(i) At or before the Closing, the Selling Parties shall pay and discharge all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Seller (including, without limitation, any liabilities in respect of any Indebtedness, Payables and Transaction Expenses as well as any accounts payable and accrued expenses that have been incurred in the Ordinary Course of Business consistent with past practices); provided, however the Seller shall not be required to discharge and pay Permitted Indebtedness and the Bridge Note and Assumed Liabilities. The Parties agree that if there is a dispute after the Closing and prior to March 31, 2016 as to whether a particular debt, liability or obligation is, on the one hand an Excluded Liability or another debt, liability or obligation of the Seller or on the other hand is an Assumed Liability or another debt, liability or obligation of the Buyer, the Buyer’s accountants shall determine to what extent each Party is responsible for such debt, liability or obligation, and such accountants’ determination shall be final and binding on the Parties; provided however if a disputed debt, liability or obligation is for an amount in excess of $50,000, then the dispute may be referred thereafter for decision to a Neutral Firm that will agree to act as Arbiter. If: (i) Buyer and the Seller are unable to agree on the selection of an Arbiter within fifteen (15) days, then each of Buyer, on the one hand, and the Seller, on the other hand, shall select one Neutral Firm and those two Neutral Firms together shall appoint a Neutral Firm as Arbiter hereunder, and such appointment shall be conclusive and binding on all of the Parties; or (ii) if any Party does not select a Neutral Firm within ten (10) days of written demand therefor by the other Party, then the Neutral Firm selected by the other Party shall act as the Arbiter. The Seller and Buyer shall each be entitled to present one written statement of position with respect to the matters in dispute within twenty (20) days of the engagement of the Arbiter (with copies to be provided concurrently to the other Party) and, no later than the tenth (10th) day following receipt thereof, one rebuttal statement with respect to the statement of position delivered by the other Party (which shall be provided concurrently to the other Party). As soon as practicable, but no later than forty-five (45) days after its acceptance of its appointment as Arbiter, the Arbiter shall determine, based solely on the written statements by Buyer and the Seller, and not by independent review, the relative responsibility of the Parties for such particular debt, liability or obligation and shall render a written report as to the determination. The Arbiter shall have exclusive jurisdiction over, and resort to the Arbiter as provided in this Section 1.7(k) shall be the sole recourse and remedy of the Parties against one another with respect to, any such disputes; and the Arbiter's determination shall (absent mathematical error) be conclusive and binding on all of the Parties and shall be enforceable in a court of law. The fees of the Arbiter shall be borne equally by the Parties.

(ii) Except as provided below, at or before the Closing, the Seller shall cause all security interests, encumbrances and other Liens (other than Permitted Liens) on or relating to any of the properties, assets and rights of the Seller, at the Selling Parties' sole cost and expense, to be released, extinguished and discharged in full, and shall deliver to Buyer instruments and Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC") termination statements, releasing, extinguishing and discharging all such security interests, encumbrances, mortgages and other Liens (other than Permitted Liens), all in form and substance satisfactory to Buyer. In the event Buyer elects to proceed with the Closing prior to its receipt of all such documentation, instruments and UCC termination statements, the Selling Parties shall nevertheless obtain and deliver to Buyer all instruments and UCC termination statements, and obtain the release, extinguishment and discharge of all Liens contemplated to be released by this Section 1.6(c)(ii). The Parties agree that if the Liens held by Wachovia (the "Wachovia Liens") have not been extinguished prior to the Closing, they shall proceed with the Closing and Seller shall obtain and deliver subsequent to the Closing documentation, instruments and UCC termination statements with respect to the Wachovia Liens.

(d) The Business. The business activities, operations and affairs of the Seller as currently being conducted, including without limitation, the provision of medical billing and collection services, business process outsourcing, and the creation and management of software related to medical billing and collection services, is herein called the "Business".

(e) For the purpose of partially securing Seller's obligations pursuant, and without limiting Seller's obligations thereunder, the amount of two million five hundred thousand Dollars ($2,500,000) in cash (the "Escrow Amount") shall be delivered by Buyers at the Closing to the Escrow Agent by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account (the "Escrow Account") to be designated and administered by the Escrow Agent pursuant to an escrow agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit A (the "Escrow Agreement"), which Escrow Agreement shall provide, among other things, that any amounts remaining in the Escrow Account shall be released to Seller twelve (12) months after the Closing, to the extent not subject to any claims made prior to that time. Seller and Buyer agree that for all Tax purposes, any amounts in the Escrow Account released to the Seller pursuant to this Section 2.7 shall be treated as additional purchase price, unless otherwise required by applicable Law. The Escrow Payment Working Capital Deficiency

Section 1.7 Post-Closing Payment.

(a) General. Buyer shall pay the Seller following the Closing in accordance with this Section certain additional sums (the “Post-Closing Payment”) an amount (the “Earn-Out Payment”) based upon the Earn-Out Factor (as defined below) and Buyer’s revenue and EBITDA during the Designated Period or Second Designated Period as applicable (provided, however the Earn-Out Payment shall be reduced, if necessary, so that aggregate amount of the Closing Consideration, the Post-Closing Payment and the amount payable pursuant to Section 6.3 shall not exceed $25,000,000 (and if at the time the Earn-Out Payment would ordinarily be paid the Escrow, together with the Earn-Out Payment, the “Post-Closing Conditional Payment”), which are subject to reduction pursuant to Section 1.7(d) provided, however that the Post Closing Conditional Payment shall, if Buyer’s EBITDA for the Designated Period is less than $2,000,000, be reduced by (I) 5.4 multiplied by (II) an amount equal to $2,000,000 minus Buyer’s EBITDA for the Designated Period; provided, further, however the Post-Closing Payment is not payable if Porteck India or the Selling Parties are in material breach of their obligations under the Option Agreement (as determined by arbitration in accordance with Section 9.3(c)) on the first anniversary of the Closing Date and, if Buyer’s EBITDA for the Designated Period is $2,000,000 or less, on the second anniversary of the Closing Date, and any Post-Closing Payment will be deferred until such determination if a notice seeking arbitration is commenced within 13 months following the Closing Date; and provided further, however Buyer may set off against the Post-Closing Payment any amounts owing to Buyer pursuant to Section 7.1(a) if a claim therefor is brought by a Buyer Indemnified Person in accordance with Section 7.1(e). The “Earn-Out Factor” equals, if Buyer’s EBITDA for the Designated Period is more than $2,000,000, (i) (A) Buyer’s EBITDA for the Designated Period less (B) $2,000,000 multiplied by (ii) 2.7, and if Buyer’s EBITDA for the Designated Period is $2,000,000 or less, (i) (A) Buyer’s EBITDA for the Second Designated Period less (B) $2,300,000 multiplied by (ii) 2.7. The “Designated Period” means the twelve consecutive calendar months commencing with the first calendar month beginning after the Closing Date. The “Second Designated Period” means the twelve consecutive calendar months commencing with the thirteenth calendar month beginning after the Closing Date. “EBITDA” means net income before deduction of interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization and with such adjustments, if any, to which the Buyer and Seller may agree in writing.

(b) Earn-Out based on Revenue. Buyer shall pay the Seller, subject to reduction pursuant to Section 1.7(d), an amount equal to the Earn-Out Factor if the Buyer’s revenue for the Designated Period (if the Earn-Out Factor is based on the Designated Period) or the Second Designated Period (if the Earn-Out Factor is based on the Second Designated Period) is at least $13,000,000; provided, however if the Buyer’s revenue for the Designated Period or Second Designated Period, as applicable, is at least $11,000,000 but less than $13,000,000, then Buyer shall pay the Seller an amount equal to the Earn-Out Factor multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Buyer's revenue for the Designated Period or Second Designated Period, as applicable, and the denominator of which is $13,000,000. No amount shall be payable pursuant to this Section 1.7(b) if the Buyer's revenue for the Designated Period or Second Designated Period, as applicable, is less than $11,000,000. Revenue shall be calculated on an accrual basis in accordance with GAAP, with a deduction for a reasonable estimate of bad debt.

By way of an example if the Buyer's EBITDA for the Designated Period is $3,000,000, then the Earn-Out Factor would be $2,700,000 (i.e. $($3,000,000 - $2,000,000) \times 2.7$), and then if the revenues were $13,500,000 for the Designated Period, the Seller would be entitled to $2,700,000 under Section 1.7(b), but if the revenues were $12,000,000 the Seller would be entitled to $$2,492,307.69$ (i.e. $$2,700,000 \times ($12,000,000 \div $13,000,000)$) under Section 1.7(b). If the revenues were only $10,000,000, the Seller would receive nothing under Section 1.7(b).

If instead of EBITDA for the Designated Period of $3,000,000 the Buyer's EBITDA is only $2,200,000, then the Earn-Out Factor would be $540,000 (i.e. $($2,200,000 - $2,000,000) \times 2.7$), and then if the revenues were $13,500,000 for the Designated Period, the Seller would be entitled to $540,000 under Section 1.7(b), but if the revenues were $12,000,000 the Seller would be entitled to $$498,461.54$ (i.e. $$540,000 \times ($12,000,000 \div $13,000,000)$) under Section 1.7(b). If the revenues were only $10,000,000, the Seller would receive nothing under Section 1.7(b).

(c) Earn-Out based on EBITDA. Buyer shall pay the Seller, subject to reduction pursuant to Section 1.7(d), an amount equal to the Earn-Out Factor if the Buyer's EBITDA for the Designated Period (if the Earn-Out Factor is based on the Designated Period) or the Second Designated Period (if the Earn-Out Factor is based on the Second Designated Period) is at least $2,750,000; provided, however if the Buyer's EBITDA for the Designated Period or Second Designated Period, as applicable, is at least $2,400,000 but less than $2,750,000, then Buyer shall pay the Seller an amount equal to the Earn-Out Factor multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Buyer's EBITDA for the Designated Period or Second Designated Period, as applicable, and the denominator of which is $2,750,000. No amount shall be payable pursuant to this Section 1.7(c) if the Buyer's EBITDA for the Designated Period or Second Designated Period, as applicable, is less than $2,400,000.

By way of an example if the Buyer's EBITDA for the Designated Period is $3,000,000, then the Earn-Out Factor would be $2,700,000 (i.e. $($3,000,000 - $2,000,000) \times 2.7$), and as a result since the EBITDA was at least $2,750,00, the Seller would be entitled to $2,700,000 under Section 1.7(c).

However if the Buyer's EBITDA for the Designated Period is $2,500,000, then the Earn-out Factor would be $1,350,000 (i.e. $($2,500,000 - $2,000,000) \times 2.7$), and as a result since the EBITDA was at least $2,400,000, the Seller would be entitled to $$1,178,181.82$ (i.e. $$1,350,000 \times ($2,400,000 \div $2,750,000)$) under Section 1.7(c).

If the EBITDA for the Designated Period were only $2,200,000, the Seller would receive nothing under Section 1.7(c) because there is no payout under this provision if EBITDA is less than $2,400,000.

(d) Reductions to Post-Closing Payments. Any Post-Closing Conditional Payment shall be reduced by an amount equal to the Top Client Loss and any Post-Closing Payment shall be reduced by an amount equal to (i) the Bad A/R Amount plus (ii) the Expected Working Capital Deficiency. The “Bad A/R Amount” means (i) $0.00 if the Closing Accounts Receivable Collections is at least 80% of the Closing Accounts Receivables and (ii) if the Closing Accounts Receivable Collections is less than 80% of the Closing Accounts Receivables, then the amount of the Closing Accounts Receivables less the Closing Accounts Receivable Collections. “Top Client Loss” means $ 0.00 unless before the end of the Designated Period one or more of the Top Clients ceases to be a Current Customer, in which case Top Client Loss means the amount by which $11,000,000 exceeded the average annual revenue during the Adjusted Designated Period. The “Adjusted Designated Period” means (i) if the Section 1.7 Notice is not delivered, the Designated Period and (ii) if the Section 1.7 Notice is delivered, the Designated Period and the Second Designated Period. The “Expected Working Capital Deficiency” is the amount, if any, by which the Expected Working Capital exceeds $ _____. The “Expected Working Capital” is the amount of working capital the Buyer needed to have on hand as of the Closing Date in order to operate the Business as in effect at such date in the Ordinary Course of Business, which amount shall be reasonably determined by the Buyer following the Closing. Once the Buyer determines the Expected Working Capital, the Buyer shall deliver to the Seller a notice setting forth the amount of the Expected Working Capital and the amount of the Expected Working Capital Deficiency, if any. The Selling Parties shall have seven days from its receipt of such notice to pay Buyer the amount of the Expected Working Capital Deficiency (the “Deficiency Amount”) and if it is not received by Buyer, interest will accrue on the Expected Working Capital Deficiency at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum from the date of the notice until the date of the payment of the Post-Closing Payment at which time the accrued interest will be deducted from the Post-Closing Payment; if Buyer receives from Seller the Deficiency Amount, Buyer will repay Seller the Deficiency Amount at the same time it pays the Post-Closing Payment.

(e) Preparation of Preliminary Statement. Within 60 days following the end of the Designated Period, Buyer will prepare, or cause to be prepared, and deliver to the Seller a Preliminary Statement (the “Preliminary Statement”) setting forth the revenues and EBITDA of the Buyer for the Designated Period, prepared in accordance with GAAP; provided, however that the Seller has the option exercisable by delivering written notice (the “Section 1.7 Notice”) to Buyer at least 60 days prior to the end of the Designated Period to require Buyer also to calculate revenues for the Second Designated Period, in which case Buyer will not prepare, or cause to be prepared, a Preliminary Statement within 60 days following the end of the Designated Period, but instead Buyer will prepare, or cause to be prepared, within 60 days following the end of the Second Designated Period a Preliminary Statement setting forth (i) the revenues for the Designated Period and the Second Designated Period, prepared in accordance with GAAP and (ii) EBITDA of the Buyer for the Designated Period, prepared in accordance with GAAP. The Preliminary Statement shall be accompanied by a letter from the Buyer’s accountants which states that the Preliminary Statement was prepared in accordance with this Agreement.

(f) Review of Preliminary Statement. Promptly after the preparation of the Preliminary Statement, Buyer shall deliver it to the Seller. The Seller and any independent accountant selected by the Seller may review the Preliminary Statement and may make inquiry of Buyer and its representatives. Buyer will make available to the Seller and such independent accountant, as reasonably requested by the Seller, all books and records of the Buyer required to assess the Preliminary Statement. The Preliminary Statement shall be binding and conclusive upon, and deemed accepted by, the Seller, unless the Seller shall have notified Buyer in writing of any objections thereto, consistent with the provisions of this Section 1.7, within forty five (45) days after the delivery thereof. The written notice delivered by the Seller to Buyer under this Section 1.7(f) shall specify in reasonable detail each specific item on the Preliminary Statement that the Seller disputes and a summary of the reasons for such dispute. Any portion of the Preliminary Statement not so disputed by the Seller shall be deemed final and conclusive.

(g) Disputes. If a dispute between Buyer and the Seller relating to the Preliminary Statement that cannot be resolved by Buyer and the Seller within thirty (30) days after receipt by Buyer of the notice referred to in Section 1.7(f), the Seller may engage an nationally recognized accounting firm to prepare if a dispute relates to the statement the revenues and EBITDA of the Buyer for the Designated Period, an audited statement of the revenues and EBITDA of the Buyer for the Designated Period, prepared in accordance with GAAP (any such statement, a “Reply Statement”). The Preliminary Statement shall be binding except to the extent there is a Material Difference between the Preliminary Statement and the Reply Statement, in which case Buyer and the Seller shall try to resolve the dispute with respect to the portion where a Material Difference exists. “Material Difference” means a difference between the Preliminary Statement and the Reply Statement of at least 5% with respect to revenues for the Designated Period or either 5% or $150,000 with respect to EBITDA of the Buyer for the Designated Period. If a dispute with respect to the portion where a Material Difference exists cannot be resolved by Buyer and the Seller within thirty (30) days after receipt by Buyer of the Reply Statement, the dispute with respect to such portion shall be referred thereafter for decision to a mutually agreeable independent nationally recognized accounting firm who has not then provided services to any Party in the past two (2) years (a “Neutral Firm”) that will agree to act as Arbiter (the “Arbiter”). If: (i) Buyer and the Seller are unable to agree on the selection of an Arbiter within fifteen (15) days of the conclusion of the period described above, then each of Buyer, on the one hand, and the Seller, on the other hand, shall select one Neutral Firm and those two Neutral Firms together shall appoint a Neutral Firm as Arbiter hereunder, and such appointment shall be conclusive and binding on all of the Parties; or (ii) if any Party does not select a Neutral Firm within ten (10) days of written demand therefor by the other Party, then the Neutral Firm selected by the other Party shall act as the Arbiter. The Seller and Buyer shall each be entitled to present one written statement of position with respect to the matters in dispute (which shall not include factual or expert affidavits, reports or submissions) within twenty (20) days of the engagement of the Arbiter (with copies to be provided concurrently to the other Party) and, no later than the tenth (10th) day following receipt thereof, one rebuttal statement (which shall not include factual or expert affidavits, reports or submissions) with respect to the statement of position delivered by the other Party (which shall be provided concurrently to the other Party). As soon as practicable, but no later than forty-five (45) days after its acceptance of its appointment as Arbiter, the Arbiter shall determine, based solely on the written statements by Buyer and the Seller, and not by independent review, only those items in dispute on the Preliminary Statement and shall render a written report as to the resolution of each dispute and the resulting calculation of the Final Statement. In making its determination, the Arbiter shall elect the position of either Buyer, on the one hand, or the Seller, on the other hand, with respect to the calculation of each item of disagreement and may not impose an alternative resolution with respect thereto. The Arbiter shall have exclusive jurisdiction over, and resort to the Arbiter as provided in this Section 1.7(g) shall be the sole recourse and remedy of the Parties against one another with respect to, any disputes arising out of or relating to the Preliminary Statement and the Final Statement; and the Arbiter's determination shall (absent mathematical error) be conclusive and binding on all of the Parties and shall be enforceable in a court of law. The fees of the Arbiter shall be borne equally by the Parties.

(h) Final Statement. The Preliminary Statement shall become final and binding upon the Parties upon the earliest of: (i) the failure by the Seller to object thereto within the period permitted under, and otherwise in material accordance with the requirements of, Section 1.7(f); (ii) the written agreement between Buyer and the Seller with respect thereto; and (iii) the decision by the Arbiter with respect to disputes under Section 1.7(g). The Preliminary Statement, as deemed to be agreed pursuant to clause (i) above, or as adjusted pursuant to the written agreement of Buyer and the Seller hereto or as determined by the Arbiter, when final and binding, is referred to herein as the "Final Statement."

(i) Post-Closing Adjustment to the Purchase Price. As soon as practicable (but not more than five (5) Business Days) after the determination of the Final Statement, Buyer shall pay to Seller the Post-Closing Payment. Such amount shall be paid to the Selling Shareholders in immediately available funds.

(j) Preparation of Accounts Receivable Statement. Within 330 days following the Closing, Seller will prepare, or cause to be prepared, and deliver to the Buyer a Preliminary Accounts Receivable Statement (the "Preliminary A/R Statement") setting forth the amount the Seller collected during the 270 day period commencing on the first day after the Closing Date with respect to the Closing Accounts Receivables (the "Closing Accounts Receivable Collections"). The Preliminary A/R Statement shall be accompanied by a letter from the Seller's accountants which states that the Preliminary A/R Statement was prepared in accordance with this Agreement. The Buyer and any accountant selected by the Buyer may review the Preliminary A/R Statement and may make inquiry of Seller and its representatives. Seller will make available to the Buyer and such accountant, as reasonably requested by the Buyer, all books and records of the Seller required to assess the Preliminary A/R Statement. The Preliminary A/R Statement shall be binding and conclusive upon, and deemed accepted by, the Buyer, unless the Buyer shall have notified Seller in writing of any objections thereto, consistent with the provisions of this Section 1.7, within thirty (30) days after the delivery thereof. The written notice delivered by the Buyer to Seller under this Section 1.7(j) shall specify in reasonable detail each specific item on the Preliminary A/R Statement that the Buyer disputes and a summary of the reasons for such dispute. Any portion of the Preliminary A/R Statement not so disputed by the Buyer shall be deemed final and conclusive.

(k) Disputes. If a dispute between Buyer and the Seller relating to the Preliminary A/R Statement that cannot be resolved by Buyer and the Seller within thirty (30) days after receipt by Seller of the notice referred to in Section 1.7(j), the Buyer may engage a nationally recognized accounting firm to prepare a statement of the amount the Seller collected during the 270 day period commencing on the first day after the Closing Date with respect to the Closing Accounts Receivables (any such statement, a “Reply A/R Statement”). The Preliminary A/R Statement shall be binding except to the extent there is a Material A/R Difference between the Preliminary A/R Statement and the Reply A/R Statement, in which case Buyer and the Seller shall try to resolve the dispute with respect to the portion where a Material A/R Difference exists. “Material A/R Difference” means a difference between the Preliminary A/R Statement and the Reply A/R Statement of at least 5%. If a dispute with respect to the portion where a Material A/R Difference exists cannot be resolved by Buyer and the Seller within thirty (30) days after receipt by Seller of the Reply A/R Statement, the dispute with respect to such portion shall be referred thereafter for decision to a Neutral Firm that will agree to act as Arbiter. If: (i) Buyer and the Seller are unable to agree on the selection of an Arbiter within fifteen (15) days of the conclusion of the period described above, then each of Buyer, on the one hand, and the Seller, on the other hand, shall select one Neutral Firm and those two Neutral Firms together shall appoint a Neutral Firm as Arbiter hereunder, and such appointment shall be conclusive and binding on all of the Parties; or (ii) if any Party does not select a Neutral Firm within ten (10) days of written demand therefor by the other Party, then the Neutral Firm selected by the other Party shall act as the Arbiter. The Seller and Buyer shall each be entitled to present one written statement of position with respect to the matters in dispute (which shall not include factual or expert affidavits, reports or submissions) within twenty (20) days of the engagement of the Arbiter (with copies to be provided concurrently to the other Party) and, no later than the tenth (10th) day following receipt thereof, one rebuttal statement (which shall not include factual or expert affidavits, reports or submissions) with respect to the statement of position delivered by the other Party (which shall be provided concurrently to the other Party). As soon as practicable, but no later than forty-five (45) days after its acceptance of its appointment as Arbiter, the Arbiter shall determine, based solely on the written statements by Buyer and the Seller, and not by independent review, only those items in dispute on the Preliminary A/R Statement and shall render a written report as to the resolution of each dispute and the resulting calculation of the Final A/R Statement. In making its determination, the Arbiter shall elect the position of either Buyer, on the one hand, or the Seller, on the other hand, with respect to the calculation of each item of disagreement and may not impose an alternative resolution with respect thereto. The Arbiter shall have exclusive jurisdiction over, and resort to the Arbiter as provided in this Section 1.7(k) shall be the sole recourse and remedy of the Parties against one another with respect to, any disputes arising out of or relating to the Preliminary A/R Statement and the Final A/R Statement; and the Arbiter’s determination shall (absent mathematical error) be conclusive and binding on all of the Parties and shall be enforceable in a court of law. The fees of the Arbiter shall be borne equally by the Parties.

(l) Final A/R Statement. The Preliminary A/R Statement shall become final and binding upon the Parties upon the earliest of: (i) the failure by the Buyer to object thereto within the period permitted under, and otherwise in material accordance with the requirements of, Section 1.7(j); (ii) the written agreement between Buyer and the Seller with respect thereto; and (iii) the decision by the Arbiter with respect to disputes under Section 1.7(k). If the Indemnifying Party is otherwise entitled to control the settlement of a Covered Proceeding (subject to the requirements and limitations of this Section 7.1), the Indemnifying Party will be entitled to control such settlement only if (A) the terms of such settlement require no more than the payment of money (for example, such settlement does not require the Indemnified Party to admit any wrongdoing or take or refrain from taking any action), (B) the full amount of such monetary settlement is fully paid by the Indemnifying Party, and (C) the Indemnified Party receives as part of such settlement a legally binding and enforceable unconditional satisfaction and release of all claimed liabilities or obligations in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party.

(iii) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Party or Parties who would otherwise be the Indemnifying Party (in this subsection the “First Party”) shall not be entitled to assume or direct the defense or settlement of any Covered Proceeding with respect to the Party or Parties who would otherwise be the Indemnified Party (in this subsection the “Other Party”) if the aggregate amount of Losses which will or could reasonably result from such Covered Proceedings to the Other Party, together with the maximum aggregate amount which could reasonably result from all other unresolved Covered Proceedings for which the First Party is liable hereunder, exceeds an amount equal to the Cap, after deducting all Losses for which the Party has, has had or could reasonably be anticipated to indemnify the Other Party by reason of this Article 7, whether in respect of such Covered Proceeding and/or the events or circumstances giving rise thereto and/or in respect of all other claims and/or indemnification obligations. In such event, the Other Party shall be entitled to control the defense and settlement of any such Covered Proceeding, and, without limiting the provisions of Section 7.1 hereof, the First Party shall be liable for all Losses in connection thereunder.

Section 1.3 Earn-Out Payments.

(a) Period 1 Earn-Out. In addition to the Closing Payment, the Selling Members shall receive an additional payment (a "Period 1 Earn-Out Payment") equal to (i) $325,000, if during the period of time between the Closing Date and the end of the sixth full calendar month after the Closing Date (the "First Earn-Out Period"), the Company's Net Profits were greater than or equal to twelve percent (12%) of the Company's Net Revenue during the same period, or (ii) otherwise, $0. By way of example, if during the First Earn-Out Period the Company's Net Revenues are $100 and during the same period the Company's Net Profits are at least $12, then the Selling Members shall receive the Period 1 Earn-Out Payment, as set forth herein. If however the Company's Net Profits during the First Earn-Out Period were less than $12, the Selling Members will receive no Period 1 Earn-Out Payment.

(b) Period 2 Earn-Out. In addition to the Closing payment and the Period 1 Earn-Out Payment (if any), the Selling Members shall receive an additional payment (a "Period 2 Earn-Out Payment," and together with the Period 1 Earn-Out Payment, the "Earn-Out Payments," and each individually, an "Earn-Out Payment") equal to (i) $325,000, if between the period of time between the date of the closing payment and twelve full calendar months after the Closing Date (the "Second Earn-Out Period"), the Company's Net Profits are greater or equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the Company's Net Revenue during the same period, or (ii) otherwise, $0. By way of example, if during the Second Earn-Out Period the Company's Net Revenues are $100 and during the same period the Company's Net Profits are at least $15, then the Selling Members shall receive the Period 2 Earn-Out Payment, as set forth herein. If however the Company's Net Profits during the Second Earn-Out Period were less than $15, the Selling Members will receive no Period 2 Earn-Out Payment.

(c) No later than seventy five (75) days following the end of the First Earn-Out Period, the Buyer will prepare and deliver to the Selling Member Representative a copy of the Company's consolidated income statement for First Earn-Out Period, together with a calculation of the Company's Net Revenue and Net Profit for the First Earn-Out Period, and the Period 1 Earn-Out Payment (the "Period 1 Earn-Out Calculation"). No later than seventy five (75) days following the end of the Second Earn-Out Period, the Buyer will prepare and deliver to the Selling Member Representative a copy of the Company's consolidated income statement for Second Earn-Out Period, together with a calculation of the Company's Net Revenue and Net Profit for the Second Earn-Out Period, and the Period 2 Earn-Out Payment (the "Period 2 Earn-Out Calculation"). In each case, the Buyer will make available to the Selling Member Representative at the Buyer's offices, or via electronic means, if possible, and upon reasonable notice, all of the relevant books and records maintained by the Company relating to the Company's business in order for the Selling Member Representative to review and confirm the Period 1 Earn-Out Calculation and the Period 2 Earn-Out Calculation.

(d) Possible reduction to Period 2 Earn-Out. As at the date of this Agreement, the amount of $200,000 is owing to Orion Healthcorp, Inc by Elite Imaging. Orion undertakes a best endeavors approach to try and collect this amount including filing a legal claim. To the extent that some or all this amount is not recovered from Elite Imaging, the Selling Members agree that the uncollected amount will be deducted from the Period 2 Earn-Out payment. Any third-party costs and expenses including but not limited to legal costs and fees will be taken into account to determining what, if any, deduction needs to be made from the Period 2 Earn-Out. For example, if legal costs and expenses total $10,000 and the amount of $150,000 is collected from Elite Imaging, then the sum of $60,000 will be held back from any Period 2 Earn-Out.

(e) Dispute Resolution. In the event that the Selling Member Representative does not agree with the Period 1 Earn-Out Calculation or the Period 2 Earn-Out Calculation, the Selling Member Representative and the Buyer shall resolve their disputes in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 1.5(c)-(e), including the applicable time frames for notices, with appropriate adjustments to reflect the fact that the subject of the dispute is the subject of Section 1.3(a)-(c) and not Section 1.5(a)-(b).

(f) Payment of Earn-Out Payments. No later than three (3) Business Days following the determination of the final Period 1 Earn-Out Payment or Period 2 Earn-Out Payment, as applicable (whether because Selling Member Representative does not provide a timely Objection Notice or because of the final determination by the Independent Auditor), the Buyer shall deliver to the Selling Member Representative, or designee or assignee thereof, in immediately available funds by wire transfer to an account designated by the Selling Member Representative, or designee or assignee thereof, in writing to Buyer at or prior to the date of such payment, the applicable Earn-Out Payment pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and the Selling Member Representative shall distribute such payment amounts to the Selling Members in amounts as determined by the Selling Members; provided.

(g) The Selling Members and the Selling Member Representative acknowledge and agree that after the Closing the Buyer shall be entitled to operate the Company in any manner that it determines, in its sole discretion, to be appropriate, subject only to its obligation of good faith. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Buyer acknowledges that the ability of the Selling Members to earn the Earn-Out Payments is a material inducement to enter into this Agreement and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and the Buyer and its Affiliates, as applicable, hereby agree to use commercially reasonable efforts to try to achieve results that would result in the making of the Earn-Out Payments. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Buyer agrees that at any time prior to the expiration of all deadlines to earn the related Earn-Out Payments (i) it will not knowingly take any action or fail to take any action with the intent to frustrate the achievement of an Earn-Out Payment, (ii) it will carry on the Company and the Business as a going concern and with a view to profit and shall not cause or permit the Company to (a) carry out any act or make any omission where the primary purpose is or would be to reduce or defer income or profits of the Company; or (b) enter into any agreement or arrangement other than on arms' length terms, (iii) it will not present a petition for or pass any resolution for the winding-up of the Company, or (iv) appoint a receiver, administrative receiver or administrator over the whole or any part of the assets of the Company. If the Buyer is in breach of any of these provisions and the Selling Member Representative has not consented in writing to such breach, then the Net Profits for the relevant Earn-Out Year shall be adjusted as if the breach had not occurred for the purposes of ascertaining the Earn-Out Payments.

Section 1.4 Discharge of Debt and Liabilities; Maintenance of Working Capital.

(a) Discharge of Debt and Liabilities. At or before the Closing, the Company shall pay and discharge all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company (including, without limitation, any liabilities in respect of any Indebtedness, Payables (except any Qualified Accounts Payable included in the calculation of Closing Working Capital) and Transaction Expenses then due and payable. “Qualified Accounts Payable” means accounts payable and accrued expenses that have been incurred in the Ordinary Course of Business; provided, however, that no account payable shall be a Qualified Accounts Payable if such account payable is due on or before the Closing, or if on the Closing Date such account payable is more than twenty nine (29) days old, or if such account payable if paid in the Ordinary Course of Business would have been paid prior to Closing, or if such account payable is for professional fees or for charges of vendors, or if the terms of such account payable provides that payment shall be made within less than thirty (30) days from the date of its issuance or if the terms of such account payable provides that payment shall be made within less than thirty (30) days from the date of its receipt. For the avoidance of doubt, all accounts payable including payroll and liabilities incurred prior to Effective Date shall be the Selling Parties’ responsibility; provided that the Selling Parties shall (i) cause all accounts receivable for services rendered prior to Effective Date to be utilized prior to the Effective Date to satisfy such payables and (ii) cause any surplus to be distributed prior to the Effective Date to the Selling Members.

(b) Release of All Liens. (c) Maintenance of Minimum Working Capital. The Selling Members shall cause the Company to take all necessary action to ensure that at the time of the Closing, and after the discharge of all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company pursuant to Section 1.4(a) and the payment of any and all distributions to the Selling Members, the Company shall have Closing Working Capital in an amount of not less than One Dollar ($1.00) (the “Minimum Working Capital”).

Section 1.5 Post-Closing Working Capital Adjustment; Accounts Receivable.

(a) Post-Closing Working Capital Adjustment. If the Closing Working Capital is less than the Minimum Working Capital, the Selling Members shall make, in accordance with Section 7.3, a payment equal to the amount by which the Closing Working Capital is less than the Minimum Working Capital within three (3) Business Days of the final determination of the Closing Working Capital by wire transfer of immediately available funds of the Selling Members to an account designated by Buyer. If the Minimum Working Capital is less than the Closing Working Capital, then Buyer shall pay to the Selling Members an additional amount equal to the amount by which the Minimum Working Capital is less than the Closing Working Capital, which shall be paid to the Selling Member Representative by Buyer within three (3) Business Days of the final determination thereof by wire transfer of immediately available funds of the Company to an account designated by the Selling Member Representative, or designee or assignee thereof; provided, however, if the Company is unable to make such payments in full, Buyer shall fund the Company for such purpose, or shall make any shortfall payments directly to the Selling Member Representative, all of which shall be done within the aforesaid three (3) Business Days. “Closing Working Capital” shall mean, as of the Closing Date, and on a consolidated basis, the sum of cash and cash equivalents (including marketable securities and short term investments, but excluding accounts receivables of the Company set forth on Schedule 1.5(f)), expenses pre-paid by the Company (including, but not limited to insurance premiums and rents), amounts the Company deposited with suppliers, vendors and landlords, and unbilled fees for work completed (i) which is not set forth on Schedule 1.5(f) and (ii) that can be reasonably expected to be converted into cash within one year, less the sum of Payables, checks issued by the Company that have not been debited from the Company’s bank account, amounts pre-paid to the Company, and amounts deposited with the Company, each as of the Closing, Payables received after the Closing for the period prior to the Closing and all outstanding Reimbursable Expenses that were incurred prior to the Closing regardless of whether they were submitted to the Company prior to the Closing.

(c) Objection Notices. On or prior to the 60th day after the Selling Member Representative’s receipt of the Closing Date Calculation and the Closing Balance Sheet, the Selling Member Representative may give Buyer a written notice stating in reasonable detail the Selling Member Representative’s objections (an “Objection Notice”) to the Closing Date Calculation and/or the Closing Balance Sheet. Any determination expressly set forth in the Closing Date Calculation or on the Closing Balance Sheet which is not objected to in an Objection Notice shall be deemed final and binding upon the Selling Member Representative upon delivery of such Objection Notice, unless same is affected by a disputed portion of such determination. Except to the extent the Selling Member Representative makes an objection to a determination set forth in the Closing Date Calculation or on the Closing Balance Sheet pursuant to an Objection Notice delivered to Buyer within such 60-day period, the Closing Date Calculation and Closing Balance Sheet will be deemed conclusive and binding upon the Parties.

If, at or before the end of the Resolution Period, the Selling Member Representative and Buyer resolve such disputes and objections, then the calculations so agreed to by the Selling Member Representative and Buyer shall be deemed to be utilized in any Closing Date Calculation and the Closing Balance Sheet, as applicable. If, at the end of the Resolution Period, the Selling Member Representative and Buyer have not resolved their disputes regarding the calculations set forth in a Closing Date Calculation or the Closing Balance Sheet, then such disputes (each a “Disputed Item”, and collectively, the “Disputed Items”) shall, within five (5) Business Days after the expiration of the Resolution Period, be submitted to the Independent Auditor for final determination. The Independent Auditor shall only have the authority to resolve matters expressly submitted to it for resolution. In resolving any Disputed Item, the Independent Auditor may not assign a value to any Disputed Item greater than the greatest value for such Disputed Item claimed by either party or less than the smallest value for such Disputed Item claimed by either party. The Independent Auditor’s resolution of any disputes hereunder shall be made within sixty (60) calendar days of the submission of such disputes thereto, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, and shall be set forth in a written statement delivered to the Selling Member Representative and Buyer. The Closing Date Calculation and the Closing Balance Sheet as determined by the Independent Auditor will be conclusive and binding upon the Parties and will constitute the Closing Date Calculation and the Closing Balance Sheet for all purposes of this Section 1.5.

(f) Tax Contests. The Company shall promptly notify the Selling Member Representative in writing upon receipt by the Company or any of its Affiliates of a written notice of any pending or threatened action with respect to Taxes for which any of the Selling Members may have liability pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, provided, however, that no failure or delay by the Company to provide such notice shall reduce or otherwise affect the obligation of the Selling Members hereunder, except to the extent that they are actually prejudiced thereby. After the Closing Date, except as set forth in this Section 6.3(f), the Company shall control the conduct, through counsel of its own choosing, of any audit, claim for refund, or administrative or judicial proceeding involving any asserted Tax liability or refund with respect to the Company (each a "Tax Contest"). In the case of a Tax Contest after the Closing Date that relates solely to Pre-Closing Tax Periods, the Selling Member Representative may elect to control the conduct of such Tax Contest, but the Company shall have the right to participate in such Tax Contest at its own expense and the Selling Member Representative shall not settle or otherwise resolve such Tax Contest without the prior written permission of the Buyer, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed, or conditioned; provided that, if the Selling Member Representative fails to assume control of the conduct of any such Tax Contest within thirty (30) days following the receipt by the Selling Member Representative of notice of such Tax Contest from the Company, then the Company shall have the right to assume control of such Tax Contest. In the case of any Tax Contest relating to any Pre-Closing Tax Period that is not controlled by the Selling Member Representative pursuant to this Section 6.3(f), (i) the Selling Member Representative shall have the right to participate in such Tax Contest at its own expense and (ii) the Company shall not settle or otherwise resolve such Tax Contest without the prior written permission of the Selling Member Representative, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed, or conditioned. The provisions of this Section 6.3(f), rather than those of Section 7.1(e), shall apply in the case of any Tax Contest.

(g) Buyer Tax Acts. Following the Closing Date, neither Buyer, nor the Company nor any Affiliate thereof may (i) file, amend or modify a Tax Return of the Company for any taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date, except in accordance with Section 6.3(d), (ii) take any action that would extend the applicable statute of limitations for any Taxes or Tax Return of the Company for any taxable periods ending on or before the Closing Date, (iii) file, amend or revoke any Tax election on behalf of the Company for any taxable periods ending on or before the Closing Date, (iv) surrender any right to claim a refund of Taxes relating to the Company relating to any taxable periods ending on or before the Closing Date, or (v) make a voluntary disclosure to a Governmental Entity with respect to any Tax or Tax Returns of the Company for any taxable periods ending on or before the Closing Date, in each case, without the prior written consent of the Selling Member Representative.

(h) Tax Refunds. All refunds of Taxes of the Company for any Pre-Closing Tax Period (including any portion of a Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date as determined in accordance with the same principles provided for in Section 6.3(a)), whether in the form of cash received or a credit against Taxes otherwise payable, shall be the property of the Selling Members and all other refunds shall be the property of the Buyer. To the extent that Buyer, the Company, or any of their Affiliates receives a refund after the Closing Date that is the property of the Selling Members, Buyer shall pay to the Selling Member Representative for distribution to the Selling Members the amount of such refund (and any interest received from the Governmental Entity with respect to such refund). The amount due to the Selling Members shall be payable twenty (20) days after receipt of the refund from the applicable Governmental Entity (or, if the refund is in the form of direct credit, twenty (20) days after the filing of the Tax Return claiming the benefit of such credit). Buyer shall, and shall cause its Affiliates, to take all actions necessary, or reasonably requested by the Selling Member Representative, to timely claim any refunds that will give rise to a payment under this Section 6.3(h).

(i) Allocation of Purchase Price. The Parties agree to treat for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes the purchase and sale of the Interests pursuant to this Agreement in a manner consistent with Revenue Ruling 99-6, situation #2. For purposes of determining (i) Buyer's initial Tax basis in the assets of the Company immediately following the Closing and (ii) the portion of the gain or loss recognized by the Selling Members upon the sale of the Interests pursuant to this Agreement that is attributable to the Company's "unrealized receivables" and "inventory items" (as such terms are defined in Section 751 of the Code), Buyer and each of the Selling Members agree to file all Tax Returns in accordance with the Purchase Price Allocation (as hereinafter defined). Any adjustments to the Purchase Price pursuant to this Agreement shall result in an adjustment to the Purchase Price Allocation to reflect the proportionate change amongst those classes of assets (or assets that correspond to the liabilities), including goodwill, that caused the adjustment to the Purchase Price. The Parties shall cooperate in the preparation of a schedule allocating the Purchase Price (along with any liabilities of the Company that are not corporations) to the assets of the Company that are not corporations (the "Purchase Price Allocation"). Buyer shall file, in accordance with Section 1060 of the Code, a Form 8594 reflecting the Purchase Price Allocation. The Parties shall report, act and file Tax Returns (including Internal Revenue Service Form 8594) in all respects and for all purposes consistent with the Purchase Price Allocation. The Parties shall, as applicable, timely and properly prepare, execute, file and deliver all such documents, forms and other information as the other Parties may reasonably request to prepare in connection with the Purchase Price Allocation. If, however, the Parties are unable to complete such Purchase Price Allocation within one hundred twenty (120) days following the Closing Date, or such later date as agreed to by the Parties, then Buyer shall file IRS Form(s) 8594 and the Parties shall each file any other federal, state and local income Tax Returns, allocating the Purchase Price (and any liabilities of the Company) in the manner each believes is appropriate. The Parties shall promptly advise one another of the existence of any Tax audit, controversy or litigation related to any allocation hereunder. None of the Parties shall take any position (whether on any Tax Returns, in any Tax Contest or Proceeding or otherwise) that is inconsistent with this Section 6.3(i) unless required to do so by Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties agree that (i) the amount allocated to any assets of the Company that is not a corporation that were subject to depreciation or amortization by the Company for income Tax purposes shall be equal to such the Company's adjusted tax basis in such assets for federal income tax purposes as of the Closing Date, and (ii) the amount allocable to the Company's accounts receivable shall equal the amount paid to the Selling Member Representative with respect thereto pursuant to Section 1.5(f).

(j) Transaction Tax Items. The Parties agree that, to the fullest extent allowable by applicable Laws, all Transaction Tax Items shall be treated (but solely for Tax purposes) as liabilities of the Selling Members that are being assumed by Buyer and, accordingly, any federal, state or local income Tax deductions arising from any payment of such Transaction Tax Items, including any deductions relating to unamortized deferred financing fees relating to any Indebtedness, shall be claimed by the Selling Members, rather than by Buyer. Neither Buyer, nor the Company (for any period following the Closing Date) nor any Affiliates thereof shall claim any income Tax deduction for any payments made in connection with any Transaction Tax Items on any Tax Return or take any position on any Tax Return or otherwise that is inconsistent with the Selling Members claiming all available income Tax deductions with respect to the payment of any Transaction Tax Items in computing their federal, state and local income Tax liabilities.

Section 6.4 Non-Competition, Non-Solicitation and Non-Disclosure.

(a) Non-Competition, Non-Solicitation. Subject to the last paragraph of Section 5 of any applicable Employment Agreements, each Selling Member agrees that it shall not, and it shall take all commercially reasonable efforts to cause its Affiliates to not, whether or not for compensation, directly or indirectly, individually or as an officer, director, shareholder, member, manager, trustee, employee, consultant, advisor, partner, proprietor or otherwise, for a period commencing on the Effective Date and ending thirty-six (36) months after the Effective Date (the "Restricted Period"): (i) other than with respect to employment or other similar arrangement with the Company, participate or engage in or provide any services to, or have any direct or indirect interest in, any business whose operations, in whole or in part, are the same as, similar to or are in competition with any of the business operations carried on by the Company during their employment by the Company or that the Company contemplated (and which such Selling Member should have known that the Company was contemplating) carrying on at the time of the termination of her employment by the Company in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, or Connecticut; provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement shall preclude such Selling Member from purchasing or owning up to five percent (5%) of the outstanding capital stock of any company which has a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Securities Act of 1934, as amended, or trading on a national securities exchange or quoted in an over-the-counter market; (ii) encourage, solicit, or induce, or in any manner attempt to encourage, solicit, or induce, any person or entity employed by, or providing consulting services to, the Company, the Buyer and/or the Buyer's parent and subsidiaries' key employees or key consultants, to terminate such person's or entity's employment or services (or in the case of a consultant, materially reduce such services) with the Company, the Buyer and/or the Buyer's parent and subsidiaries; (iii) hire any person or entity who was employed by the Company, the Buyer and/or the Buyer's parent and subsidiaries' key employees or key consultants within the six (6) month period prior to the date on which such Selling Member ceases to be an employee of the Company; or (iv) encourage, solicit or induce, or in any manner attempt to encourage, solicit or induce, any client, account, customer or licensee of the Company and/or the Buyer or any other Person with whom the Company and/or the Buyer has a business relationship to cease doing business with or reduce the amount of business conducted with the Company and/or the Buyer, or in any way interfere with the relationship between any such client, account, customer, licensee or business relation with the Company and/or the Buyer. For the avoidance of doubt a key employee or key consultant is any person or company who is compensated more than $100,000 a year or who has a title of Vice President or above or, if a consultant, is providing similar services to a person who has a title of Vice President or above. The Selling Members shall be entitled to rely on the representations of any person or entity with respect to their title and compensation and whether or not they worked for the Buyer's parent or subsidiaries.

(b) Non-Disclosure. Each Selling Member agrees that it shall not, and it shall take all efforts to cause its Affiliates to not, use for itself or others, or publish, disclose or otherwise reveal or divulge, any Confidential Information (as such term is defined below); provided, that subsequent to the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, such restriction shall apply only if such use or disclosure is materially adverse to the Company. Each Selling Member shall, and shall take all commercially reasonable efforts to cause its Affiliates to, (1) maintain all Confidential Information in the strictest confidence and keep the same secret using at least the same degree of care as it uses for its own confidential information, (2) retain all Confidential Information in trust in a fiduciary capacity for the sole and absolute benefit of the Company, and (3) refrain from using or allowing to be used any Confidential Information for its own benefit or for the benefit of any third party, provided, however, that in the event disclosure of Confidential Information is requested of a Selling Member (i) by a Governmental Authority under color of law or applicable regulation, (ii) pursuant to subpoena or other compulsory process, or (iii) otherwise as may be required by law, such Selling Member to the extent lawfully possible will give the Company prompt prior written notice, which, to the extent possible, shall be at least five (5) days, before its disclosure and will provide the Company with copies of any responsive materials. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean non-public information concerning the financial data, strategic business plans, product development (or other proprietary product data), customer lists, customer information, costs, pricing, materials, supplies, vendors, products, services, information relating to governmental relations, discoveries, practices, processes, methods, marketing plans, Intellectual Property and other material non-public, proprietary and confidential information of the Company or relating to the Business, that, in any case, is not otherwise generally available to the public and has not been disclosed by the Company to others not subject to confidentiality agreements. Confidential information does not include information that (i) becomes known to a Selling Member from a source other than the Company or Affiliate thereof; provided, that, such source has not entered into a confidentiality agreement with the Company or Affiliate thereof with respect to such information or obtained the information from an entity or person who is a party to a confidentiality agreement with the Company with respect to such information, (ii) is proven by competent evidence by a Selling Member that it was independently conceived or discovered by such Selling Member without reference to or use of the Confidential Information, or (iii) has become publicly known and made generally available through no wrongful act of a Selling Member.

(c) Enforcement. If any Selling Member commits a breach, or threatens to commit a breach, of any of the provisions of Section 6.4(a)-(b), (such person committing or threatening to commit a breach, the “Breaching Party”), then the Company shall have the right and remedy to have such provisions of this Section specifically enforced by any court having equity jurisdiction, it being acknowledged and agreed that any such breach or threatened breach will cause irreparable injury to the Company and that money damages will not provide an adequate remedy at law; and in connection therewith the right to seek, without notice to such Breaching Party and without the need to post any bond, a temporary restraining order, an injunction and any other equitable relief. Such right of injunctive relief shall be cumulative only in addition to the right of the Company to recover from such Breaching Party the liquidated damages as set forth in Section 6.4(d) below.

(d) Severability. The provisions of this Section are severable, and if any provision or any part of any provision of this Section is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the balance of that provision and the other provisions hereof shall be given full force and effect and remain fully valid and enforceable.

(e) Blue-Penciling. If any one, or any part, of the covenants contained in this Section 6.4 is held to be unenforceable because of the duration of such provision or the area covered thereby, the parties agree that the court making such determination shall have the power to reduce the duration and/or area of such provision and, in its reduced form, said provision shall then be enforceable.

(f) Venue. The parties hereto intend to and hereby confer jurisdiction to enforce the covenants contained in this Section 6.4 upon the courts of any state or other jurisdiction within the geographical scope of such covenants. In the event that the courts of any one or more of such states or other jurisdictions shall hold such covenants wholly unenforceable by reason of the breadth of such scope or otherwise, it is the intention of the parties hereto that such determination not bar or in any way affect in the courts of any other states or other jurisdictions within the geographical scope of such covenants the right of the Company or the right of the Selling Members, as applicable, to the relief for breaches of such covenants in such other states, the above covenants as they relate.

Section 6.5 Expense Accounts. Except as expressly consented to by Buyer in writing, the Company shall cause all of its managers, directors, officers, employees and consultants to submit all claims for Reimbursable Expenses incurred prior to the Closing to be submitted to the Company prior to the Closing and shall cause all travel, entertainment and other Reimbursable Expenses incurred by their managers, directors, officers, employees and consultants that the Company is obligated to reimburse or that the Company has in the past typically reimbursed to be reimbursed prior to the Closing.

Section 6.6 Method of Accounting. During the period of time following the Closing in which the Selling Members may be entitled to receive certain post-Closing payments, including the Earn-Out Payments, Buyer shall cause the Company to prepare the Financial Statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for purposes of calculating such post-Closing payments.

Section 6.7 Proceedings. The Selling Members shall be responsible for the fees and expenses of all Proceedings set forth on Schedule 3.6 and the Selling Members shall be entitled to any and all recoveries from all such Proceedings.

Section 6.8 Key Employment Agreements. The Selling Members shall use their good faith efforts to deliver Employment Agreements duly executed by any key employee of the Company who has an annual compensation package of over $100,000 per year, in a mutually agreed upon form (the "Employment Agreements").

Section 6.9 Schedule Updates. The disclosures in any Schedule to the representations and warranties in Article 3 shall qualify the other representations and warranties in Article 3 to the extent it is readily apparent from a reading of the disclosure that such disclosure is applicable to such other representations and warranties in Article 3. At any time during the thirty (30) day period from and after May 31, 2017, the Selling Member Representative shall have the right to deliver to Buyer a supplement or amendment to any Schedule to the representations and warranties in Article 3 (each, a "Schedule Supplement"), and such Schedule Supplement shall be deemed to be the final Schedules to the representations and warranties in Article 3; provided, however, that no Schedule Supplement shall be deemed to update any original Schedule to the representations and warranties in Article 3 if such Schedule Supplement sets forth any event or the existence of any fact or condition which would result in (a) a reduction of the Company's EBITDA, taken as a whole, for the twelve month period ending May 31, 2017, by more than $500,000 or (b) Losses to the Company of more than $500,000.

Section 6.10 Business Plan. Intentionally Omitted.

ARTICLE 7

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 7.1 Indemnification.

(a) Indemnification by the Selling Members. Subject to the limits set forth in this Article 7, from and after the Closing, the Selling Members agree, jointly and severally, to indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its Affiliates (including, after the Closing, the Company) and their respective officers, directors, managers, members, shareholders, employees, agents and representatives (the "Buyer Indemnified Persons") harmless (except with respect to claims for indemnification arising from breaches of representations and warranties set forth in Article 4 or claims for breaches of covenants contained in this Agreement made by a Selling Member, in which case, such Selling Member shall severally indemnify the Buyer Indemnified Parties with respect to such Selling Member's breaches) from and in respect of Losses that they incur or suffer arising out or by reason of, in connection with or due to (i) any breach of any representation or warranty of the Company or any Selling Member contained in this Agreement or any other Seller Document,

(ii) any breach of any covenant or agreement of the Company or any Selling Member contained in this Agreement or any other Seller Document, (iii) any of the Excluded Liabilities, (iv) any and all claims of third parties with whom the Company or its agents have had discussions with respect to the disposition of the Company or its Business in connection with or arising out of such discussions, (v) any and all claims relating to the matters set forth on Schedule 3.6 or any other civil, criminal or administrative suit, action, proceeding, investigation, violation or other Proceeding to the extent based upon or arising from any act, transaction, circumstance, sale or providing of works, material, product or services, state of facts or other condition which occurred or existed, before the Closing Date, whether or not then known, due or payable, or with respect to the operation of the Business prior to Closing, the employment of the Employees prior to Closing or the ownership (or leasing of), operation or use of the assets of the Business prior to the Closing (each to the extent in excess of the amounts covered by the Company's insurance policies), (vi) any and all claims relating to the Owned Intellectual Property, including, without limitation, that such Owned Intellectual Property infringes upon, violates or constitutes the unauthorized use of any of the Intellectual Property or proprietary rights of any Person with respect to the period prior to the closing, (vii) any and all Taxes of any Selling Member whether or not relating to or arising out of the Business; (viii) any and all Taxes of the Company for any Pre-Closing Tax Periods (including the portion of any Straddle Period relating to the Pre-Closing Tax Period, as determined under Section 6.3(a)), (ix) any and all Benefit Liabilities of Company relating to the period prior to the Closing; (x) any liabilities with respect to environmental matters (including Losses relating to any remediation for environmental matters disclosed in Schedule 3.18 with respect to the period prior to the Closing) incurred by the Company); (xi) with respect to services provided by Company before the Closing (A) any claim based on a warranty with respect to services rendered before the Closing and (B) any warranties issued before Closing relating to such services (whether expressed or implied by operation of Law); (xii) the operation of the Company prior to the Closing; (xiii) the Company having failed to duly qualify or obtain a license to do business in all of the jurisdictions in which the nature of the Company's activities required such qualification or licensing with respect to the period prior to the Closing; and (xiv) any Losses or other amounts (including with respect to disability and unemployment) with respect to Employees of the Company (other than to the extent arising out of their employment by Buyer) with respect to the period prior to the Closing.

(b) Subject to the limits set forth in this Article 7, from and after the Closing, Buyer and the Company, jointly and severally, agree to indemnify, defend and hold the Selling Members, and their respective agents and representatives (the "Seller Indemnified Persons") harmless from and in respect of any and all Losses that they incur or suffer arising out of or by reason of or in connection with or due to (i) any breach of any representation or warranty of Buyer set forth in this Agreement or any other Buyer Document, (ii) the failure to perform any of the covenants or agreements of Buyer set forth in this Agreement or any other Buyer Document, and (iii) the operation of the Company following the Closing Date.

(c) Certain Limitations. Anything in this Article 7 to the contrary notwithstanding:

(i) neither the Buyer Indemnified Persons, on the one hand, nor Seller Indemnified Persons, on the other hand, shall be entitled to recover pursuant to Section 7.1(a) or 7.1(b), as the case may be, in respect of breaches of representations and warranties (other than the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 3.1 (Organization; Authority; Due Execution), 3.5 (Capitalization), 3.10 (Tax Matters), 3.17(b) Permits, 4.1 (Ownership of Interest) and 4.2 (Authority), and Buyer's representations and warranties set forth in Section 5.1(b) (Authority) (all such representations and warranties being herein called "Specified Representations") from the respective other Party hereunder for any Losses, except to the extent that the aggregate amount of any such Losses indemnifiable hereunder exceeds $75,000 (the "Basket"), at which point, either the Buyer Indemnified Persons or the Seller Indemnified Persons, as the case may be, will be obligated to indemnify the Party seeking indemnification for all such Losses in excess of the Basket, subject to the other clauses of this Section 7.1(c);

(ii) (a) neither the Buyer Indemnified Persons, on the one hand, nor Seller Indemnified Persons, on the other hand, shall be entitled to recover for Losses (other than for Losses on account of breaches of the Specified Representations) in an aggregate amount in excess of the Cap and (b) neither the Buyer Indemnified Persons, on the one hand, nor Seller Indemnified Persons, on the other hand, shall be entitled to recover for Losses, including Losses on account of breaches of the Specified Representations, in an aggregate amount in excess of twice the Cap.

(iii) none of the foregoing limitations on indemnification in clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 7.1(c) shall apply to any claim based on fraud or intentional misrepresentation or willful ignorance;

(iv) solely for purposes of calculating the amount of Losses incurred arising out of or relating to any breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement (and not for purposes of determining whether or not such a breach has occurred) any reference to "Material Adverse Effect" or any other materiality qualifications in such representation, warranty, covenant or agreement shall be disregarded; and

(v) the amount which an Indemnifying Party is required to pay to, for or on behalf of any Indemnified Party pursuant to this Article 7 shall be adjusted (including, retroactively) by any insurance proceeds and any indemnity, contribution, or other similar payment actually recovered by or on behalf of such Indemnified Party in reduction of the related indemnifiable loss (the "Indemnifiable Loss"). Amounts required to be paid, as so reduced, are hereinafter sometimes called an "Indemnity Payment." If an Indemnified Party shall have received or shall have had paid on its behalf an Indemnity Payment in respect of an Indemnifiable Loss and shall subsequently receive insurance proceeds or other payment in respect of such Indemnifiable Loss, then the Indemnified Party shall pay to the Indemnifying Party the amount of such insurance proceeds or other payment or, if lesser, the amount of the Indemnity Payment. To the extent that any Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Article 7, the Indemnifying Party shall have rights of subrogation respecting, any rights and remedies (including rights of indemnity, rights of contribution and other rights of recovery) that any Indemnified Party may have to insurance policies or similar contracts with respect to which such Indemnified Party is a beneficiary.

(vi) Buyer may set off any amount to which it may be entitled from the Selling Members under this Article against amounts payable to the Selling Members pursuant to Sections 1.3 and 1.4 (provided, however that neither the exercise of, nor the failure to exercise such right to setoff will constitute an election of remedies or limit Buyer in any manner in the enforcement of any other remedies that may be available to it).

(vii) The Buyer Indemnified Persons and the Seller Indemnified Persons shall in good faith use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate Losses in connection with any claim under Section 7.1(a) and Section 7.1(b), respectively.

(viii) Any Losses for which any Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification under this Article 7 shall be determined without duplication of recovery to the extent such Indemnified Party has been indemnified or reimbursed for such Loss under any other provision of this Agreement; and

(d) Survival.

(i) The representations, warranties and covenants of the Parties contained in this Agreement, any other Seller Document or Buyer Document, as the case may be, or in any instrument delivered pursuant hereto or thereto will survive the Closing and will remain in full force and effect thereafter, except that the representations and warranties of the Parties shall expire twelve (12) months following the Closing; provided, that: (i) such representations and warranties shall survive beyond such period with respect to any breach thereof if written notice thereof shall have been duly given within such period, (ii) the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 3.10 (Tax Matters) and 3.12 (Employee Benefits) shall survive the Closing until one (1) month following the lapse of the applicable statute of limitations, and (iii) the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 3.1 (Organization; Authority; Due Execution), 3.5 (Capitalization), 4.1 (Ownership of Interest), 4.2 (Authority) and 5.1(b) (Authority) shall survive indefinitely. None of the foregoing limitations on survival shall apply in the case of fraud, intentional misconduct or intentional misrepresentation.

(ii) Subject to Section 7.1(d)(i) above, all other claims for indemnification with respect to Losses incurred by the Buyer Indemnified Parties pursuant to Section 7.1(a) shall be asserted within a period of three (3) years following the Closing (and if not asserted within such period shall lapse); provided, however, (1) any claims for indemnification with respect to Losses incurred by the Buyer Indemnified Parties pursuant to Sections 7.1(a)(vii) or (viii) may be asserted indefinitely and (2) any claims for indemnification with respect to Losses incurred by the Buyer Indemnified Parties pursuant to Section 7.1(a)(v) shall be asserted within a period of four (4) years following the Closing (and if not asserted within such period shall lapse).

(e) Notice and Opportunity to Defend. The following shall apply:

(i) If there occurs an event (a "Covered Proceeding") which a Party asserts is an indemnifiable event pursuant to Section 7.1(a) or 7.1(b), the Party or Parties seeking indemnification (the "Indemnified Party") shall notify the other Party or Parties obligated to provide indemnification (the "Indemnifying Party") promptly. If such event involves any claim or the commencement of any action or proceeding by a third person, the Indemnified Party shall give such Indemnifying Party prompt written notice of such claim or the commencement of such action or proceeding; provided, however, that the failure to provide prompt notice as provided herein will relieve the Indemnifying Party of its obligations hereunder only to the extent that such failure prejudices the Indemnifying Party hereunder. In case any such action shall be brought against any Indemnified Party and after such Indemnified Party has notified the Indemnifying Party of the commencement thereof, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to assume the defense thereof, with counsel reasonably selected by the Indemnifying Party and reasonably approved by the Indemnified Party after notice from the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party. The Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party agree to cooperate fully with each other and their respective counsel in connection with the defense, negotiation or settlement of any such action or asserted liability.

(ii) If the Indemnifying Party agrees to assume the defense of a Covered Proceeding, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to participate at its own expense in the defense of such action or asserted liability. If the Indemnifying Party is otherwise entitled to control the settlement of a Covered Proceeding (subject to the requirements and limitations of this Section 7.1), the Indemnifying Party will be entitled to control such settlement only if (A) the terms of such settlement require no more than the payment of money (for example, such settlement does not require the Indemnified Party to admit any wrongdoing or take or refrain from taking any action), (B) the full amount of such monetary settlement is fully paid by the Indemnifying Party, and (C) the Indemnified Party receives as part of such settlement a legally binding and enforceable unconditional satisfaction and release of all claimed liabilities or obligations in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party.

Section 7.2 Exclusive Remedy. From and after the Closing, Buyer Indemnified Persons and Seller Indemnified Persons' sole and exclusive remedy, whether in any individual, corporate or any other capacity, with respect to any and all Losses arising under this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, regardless of the legal theory under which such liability or obligation may be sought to be imposed, whether sounding in contract or tort, or whether at law or in equity, or otherwise, shall be pursuant to the provisions of this Article 7.

Section 7.3 Payments. Any amounts owed to the Buyer by the Selling Members (or any one or more of the Selling Members) pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including but not limited to, Section 1.2, Section 1.5, Section 1.6, Article 7, shall be paid to the Buyer as a payment by the Selling Members in cash or available funds to an account designated by the Buyer within five (5) Business Days of the final determination of such payment.

Section 9.6 Headings. The section headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 9.7 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the Exhibits and Schedules hereto and the documents referred to herein, embodies the entire agreement and understanding of the Parties in respect of the subject matter contained herein other than the Confidentiality Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof other than the Confidentiality Agreement.

Section 9.8 Amendment and Modification. This Agreement may be amended or modified only by written agreement of the Selling Member Representative and Buyer.

Section 9.9 Binding Effect; Benefits. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns; nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer on any Person other than the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns (and, to the extent provided in Section 7.1, the other Buyer Indemnified Parties and Seller Indemnified Parties) any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 9.10 Joint Drafting. The Parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the Parties and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any Party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 9.11 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law, but if any provision of this Agreement is held to be prohibited by or invalid under applicable Law, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions described in in this Agreement is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any Party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions described in this Agreement are fulfilled to the extent possible.

Section 9.12 Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to an Article, Section, Schedule, or Exhibit, such reference will be to an Article or Section of, or a Schedule or Exhibit to, this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they will be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.” The words “hereof,” “herein” and “hereunder” and words of similar import when used in this Agreement will refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. All terms used herein with initial capital letters have the meanings ascribed to them herein and all terms defined in this Agreement will have such defined meanings when used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant hereto unless otherwise defined therein. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. Unless otherwise indicated, any agreement, instrument or statute defined or referred to herein, or in any agreement or instrument that is referred to herein, means such agreement, instrument or statute as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including (in the case of agreements or instruments) by waiver or consent and (in the case of statutes) by succession of comparable successor statutes and references to all attachments thereto and instruments incorporated therein. References to a Person are also to its successors and permitted assigns.

Section 9.13 Assignability. This Agreement shall not be assignable by any Party hereto without the prior written consent of the other Parties; provided that Buyer (a) may grant a security interest in its rights under this Agreement to its lenders as security for Buyer's obligations to such lenders (and such lenders may exercise their rights and remedies with respect to such security interest), (b) may assign its rights under the Agreement to any Affiliate of Buyer and (c) may assign its rights to indemnity, in whole or in part, to any Person that acquires an interest in Buyer or a material portion of its assets or the Business. Notwithstanding any assignment by Buyer described in clauses (b) and (c) of the proviso in the previous sentence of this Section, Buyer shall remain liable under this Agreement jointly and severally with the assignee. No such assignment shall be a novation of Buyer's obligations under this Agreement.

Section 9.14 Attorneys' Fees. If any Party hereto defaults in the performance of any of its obligations under this Agreement or if any dispute arises between Parties hereto concerning the meaning or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement, then the defaulting Party or the Party not prevailing in such dispute, as the case may be, shall pay any and all costs and expenses incurred by the other Party or Parties on account of such default and/or in enforcing or establishing its rights hereunder, including, without limitation, court costs (including costs of any trial or appeal therefrom), and reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements.

Section 9.15 Specific Performance. The Parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that each Party shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement (without any obligation of such Party to post any bond or other surety in connection therewith) and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in addition to any other remedy to which such Party may be entitled at law or in equity.

Section 9.16 Continuing Counsel. The Buyer hereby acknowledges that [] has acted as counsel to the Company with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. The following provisions apply to the attorney-client relationship between [] and the Company following the Closing. The Buyer hereby agrees that (a) it will not seek to disqualify [] from acting and continuing to act as counsel to the Selling Members or the Selling Member Representative either in the event of a dispute hereunder or in the course of the defense or prosecution of any claim relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, and (b) the Company has a reasonable expectation of privacy with respect to their communications (including any communications using the Company's computer and email systems and servers) with [____] prior to the Closing to the extent that such communications relate to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. The Buyer agrees that it will respect the confidentiality and privileged nature of all such communications between [____] and the Company, and the Buyer agrees that it will not seek discovery of any such communications or otherwise claim any right of access or use to any such communications to the extent so privileged. The Selling Parties hereby acknowledge that Robinson Brog Leinwand Greene Genovese & Gluck PC has acted as counsel to the Buyer with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.
